PAUL SOVIK BUSINESS MANAGER

RITA E. DALY FACULTY ADVISOR

DEDICATION

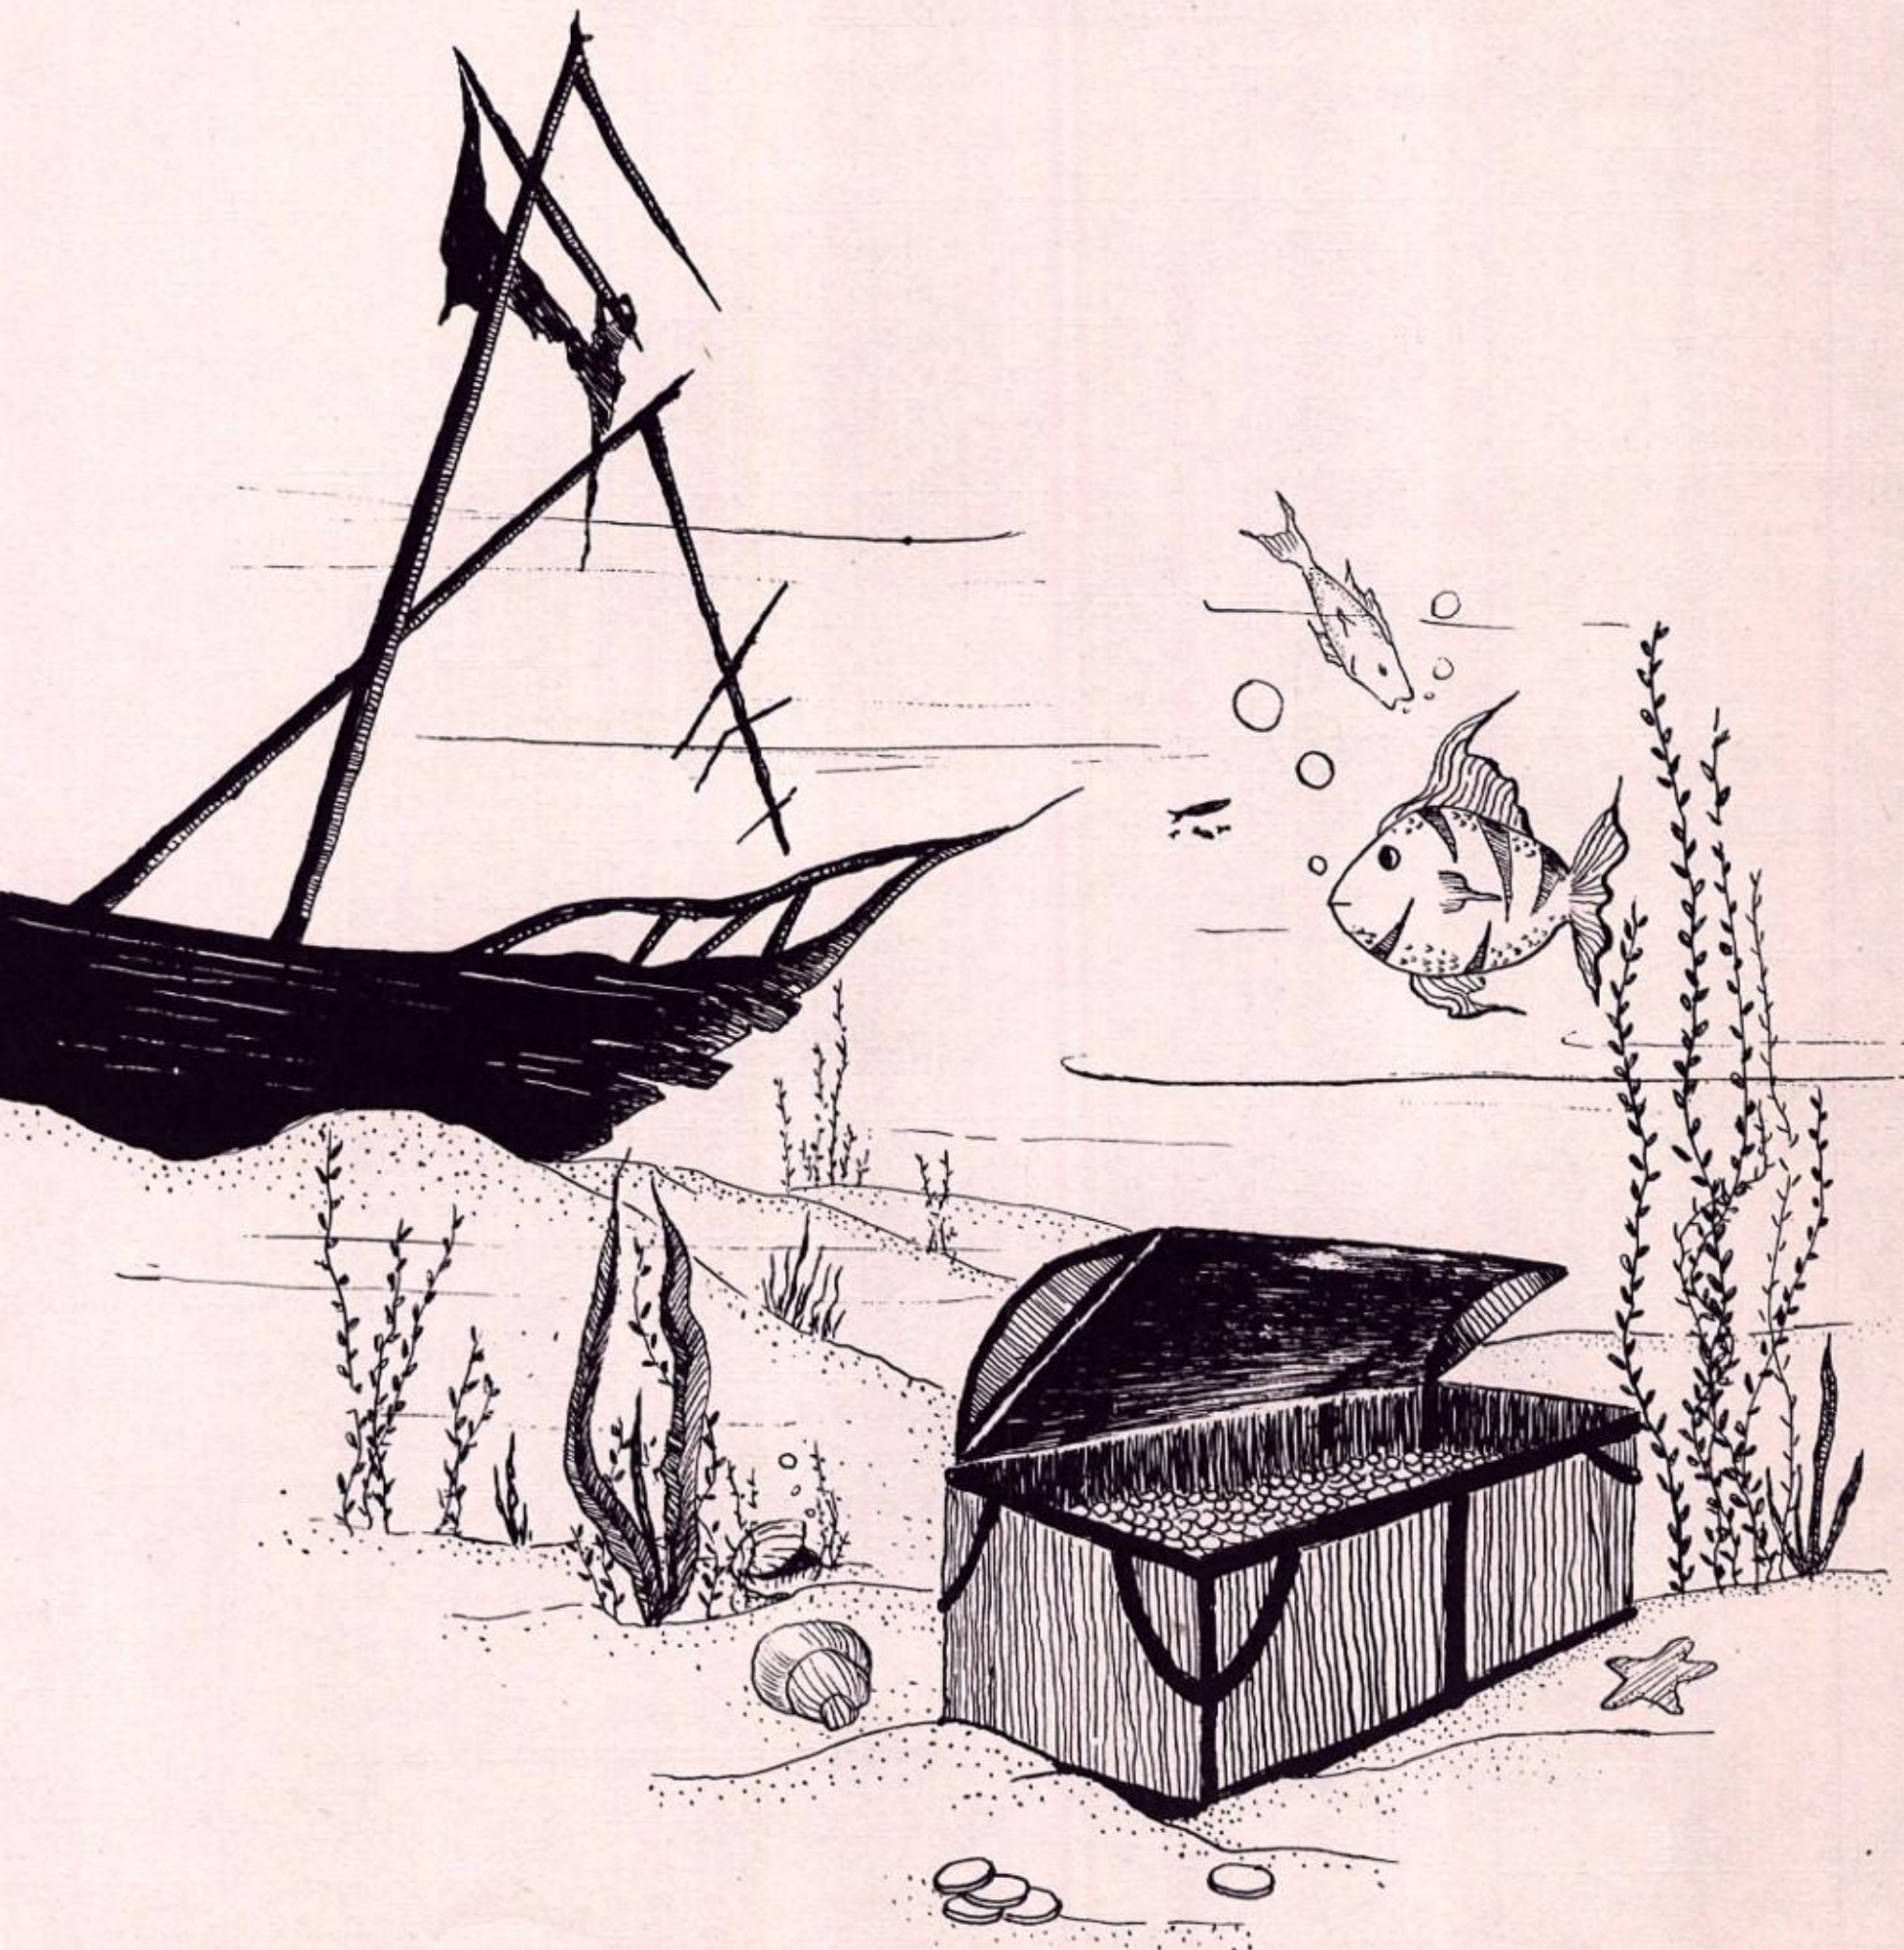

Mrs. Marcia Karg, a talented lady, kind and perservering, who, down the years, has been guide to the beauties of the world around us through art. From our kindergarten days, Mrs. Karg has guided us in the attempt to transmit to each of us a bit of her artistry. For us, she has toiled over many a BARONET, many a banquet program.

Now, Mrs. Karg, as we prepare to leave our high school days retaining some of the knowledge of beauty you have given us, this book, this record of our accomplishments, the Class of 1952 affectionately dedicates to you.

FACULTY

EUGENE F. CONANT

The head of our school system. Keeps education in Johnstown running smoothly.

LELAND P. BRADY

A versatile gentleman. He really makes that piano talk. Quite a range of talents - - from playing modern music to teaching ancient history.

WILLIAM A. WRIGHT

The "Big Fisherman" at J.H.S. Never without a kind word for everyone. Keeps Johnstown High at the top of the scholastic list.

VIRGINIA C. CAVORETTO

Our class advisor. Pulled us over the rough spots as juniors and seniors. To her we owe THREE enjoyable years at J.H.S.

SHIRLEY S. AYERS

Head of the girl's physical education department. Teaches girls everything from dancing steps to basketball plays.

MILDRED S. COLVIN

The school's top artistic mind. Helps all budding 'Rembrandts' with their artistic problems.

SID AYERS

Lends a helping hand to all undecided Seniors. With students behind the wheel, he has quite a time keeping the driver ed. car on the straight and narrow.

RITA E. DALY

A fun - loving English teacher whose witty remarks echo through Rm. 24 daily. She'll stand by the giants to the bitter end.

ALICE L. DILLENBECK

Our lovely Latin lady. "She came, she saw, she conquered" --- the hearts of all JHS students.

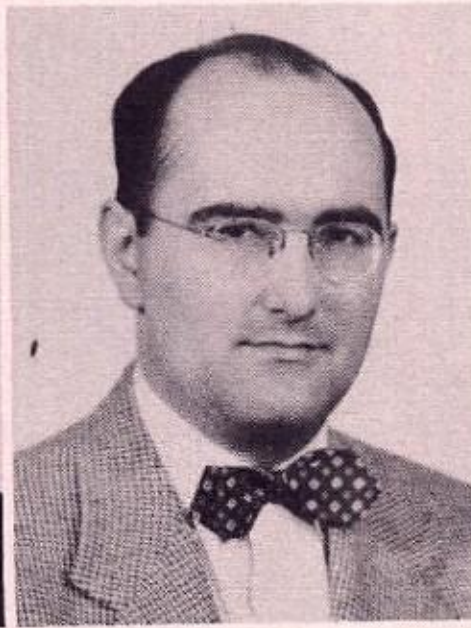

GERTRUDE M. GREWEN

"Mlle. Grewen" speaks French like a native -- even though she's a daughter of Johnstown. Works plenty of variety into every class.

MELISSA B. DUNHAM

Teaches the fine art of sewing to all future homemakers. Her favorite expression --- "Rip it out."

FRANK HYDE

A man with a mechanical mind. Well liked both as a good teacher and a good friend.

EDITH B. DUNLAP

The lady who can teach just about anything. Her favorite subject, though -- her grandchildren.

EDWARD J. JANTSCHI

As director of the chorus, he's made Mario Lanzas and Marguerite Piazzas out of the members. Has a great time leading songs in assembly.

EVELYN E. ELWOOD

One reason why the JHS library is such a cheery place. She's also a big help in suggesting good novels to undecided students.

JOHN R. JOHNSON

Passes all current history on to struggling underclassmen. Thinks the best life is army life.

*John R. Johnson
Many best wishes!*

FLORENCE D. JUDY

Head cooking instructor in the home ec. department.
Teaches our girls "the way to a man's heart."

ELIZABETH J. POWELL

Our pert and pretty English teacher.
Turned coach this year and helped put pep into many of the cheerleading yells.

HELEN Q. LATHERS

Our very talented dramatic coach. Insists that you can't escape your speech.
Senior play kept her busy.

MILDRED B. RICHMOND

A little lady of wit and wisdom. Can click out a merry pace on a typewriter. Clicks with students, too.

HARRIET B. LORENCE

One of J.H.S. 's peppiest teachers, she's always popping up with an idea to brighten English classes. As advisor, she's BUGLE's top reporter.

MARGARET M. SAUNDERS

The grand lady of geometry.
claims to have been one of Pythagorus' best pals. Has a wonderful way with her students.

J. ROGER OAKSFOARD

Teaches the boys all about auto mechanics.
Adept at spinning records for J.H.S. 'vic" dances.

JOHN P. SIEDLECKI

Our energetic coach.
Keeps his senior and junior social studies classes filled with lively discussion and still livelier remarks.

VIANNA J. STREETER

The lady we'd be lost without. Takes care of all official finances at JHS. A grand advisor for Student Council.

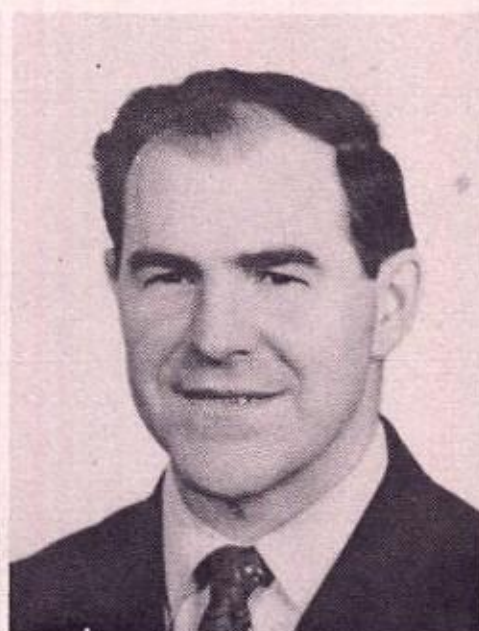

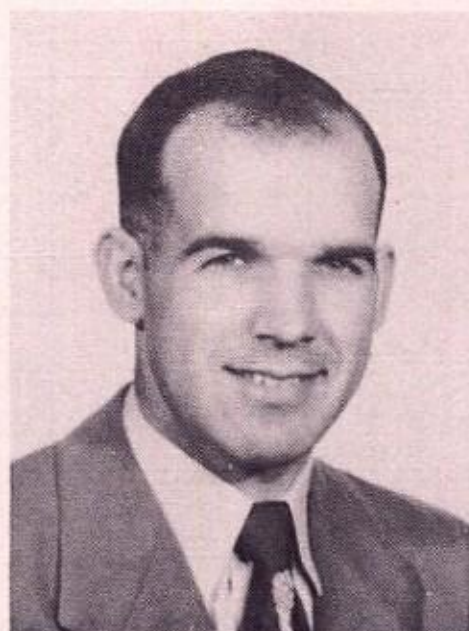

LLOYD D. WILLCOX

Einstein's understudy at JHS. Never at a loss for words, he's the originator of all current corn.

JAMES G. UNDERWOOD

Our newest teacher. He's taken over as boys' physical education instructor. A welcome addition to our coaching staff.

JACK WROBLE

The leader of the band. Put pride in JHS hearts by training our first marching band in many a year.

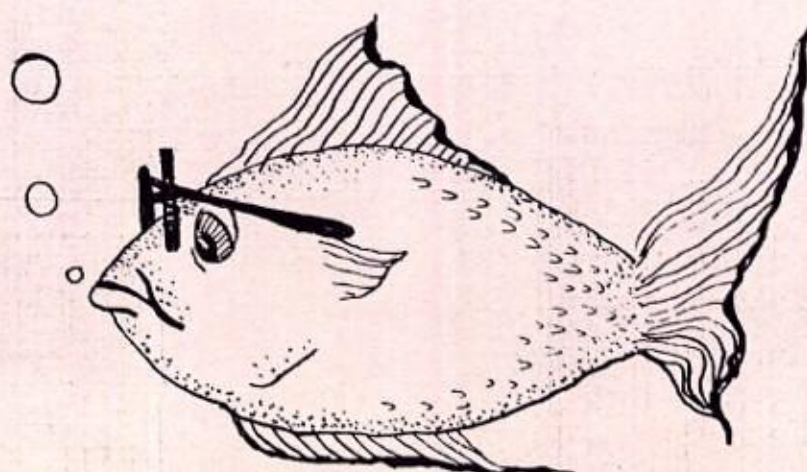

RUTH VAN DUSEN

Our efficient secretary. She's forever scurrying thru the halls of JHS, shooin' stray students off to classes.

MILTON E. ZOELLNER

A man who's at home both on a basketball court and in a Biology lab. Ever popular with the students.

Pedagogue Personalities

C'mon, now. Everybody passes.

Good morning, Victims!

A glint in her eye.

Must I go in?

Schenectady to Albany in 12 1/2 minutes.

Enter, ladies.

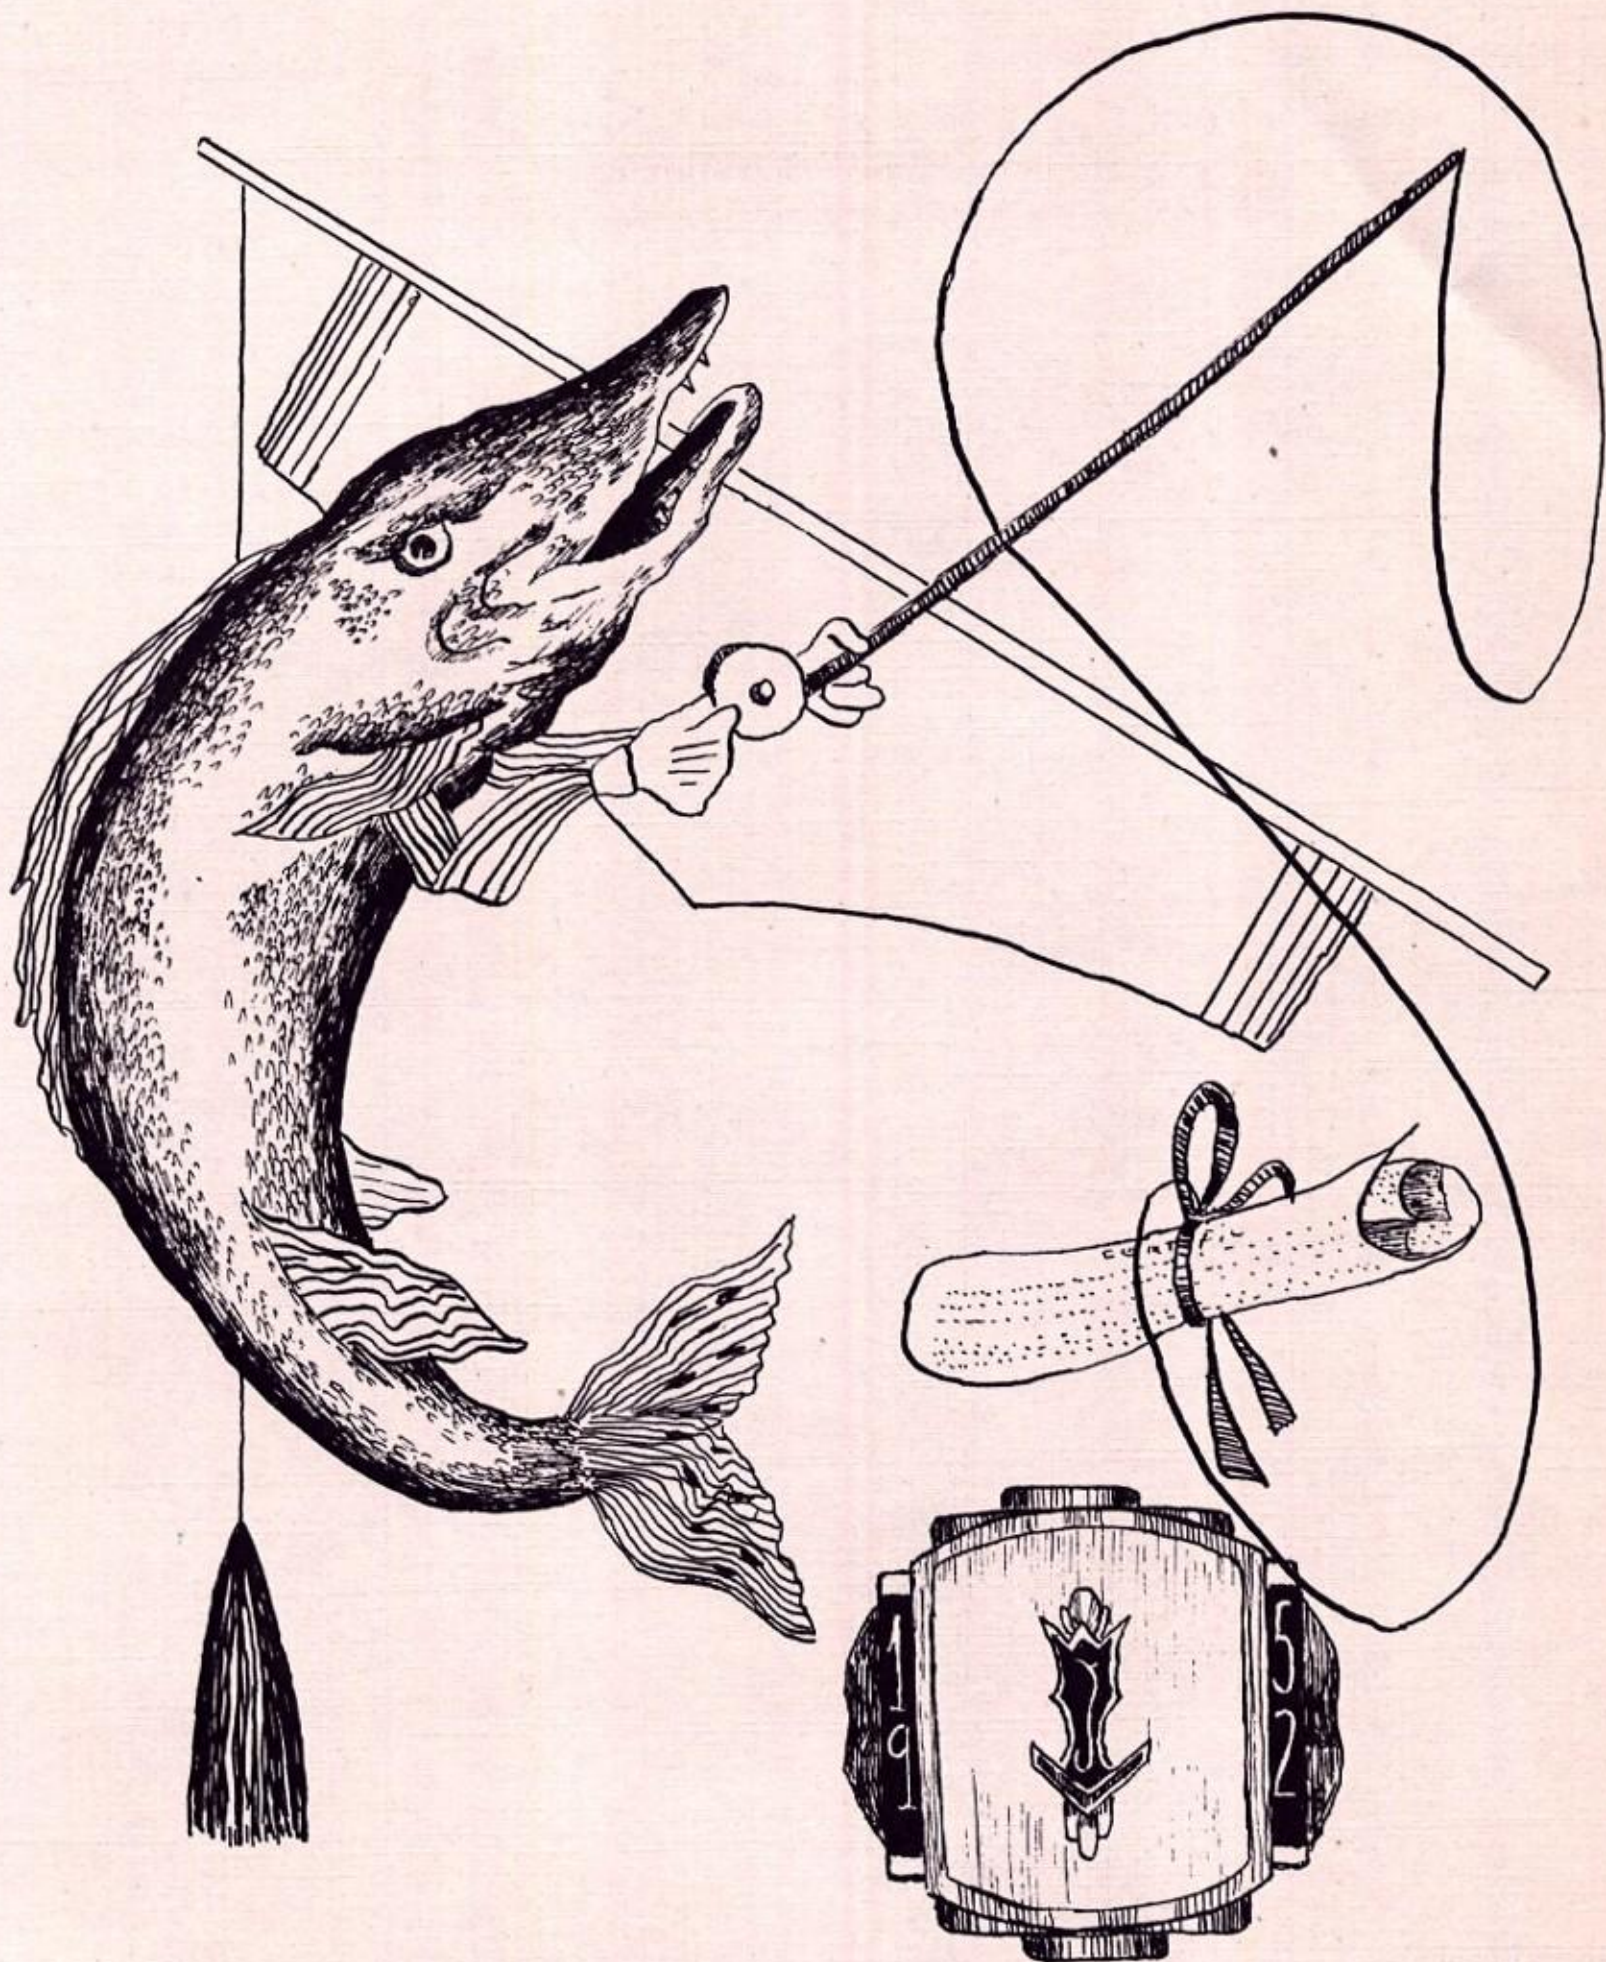

Remove you hat. please.

Beginning, or the end?

SENIORS

ABBOTT, JUNE

The first in our line of stars - - and a bright one, too. Efficient in school she's a joy to her teachers. Thinks there's no dance like a square dance. She's forever do - si - do - ing.

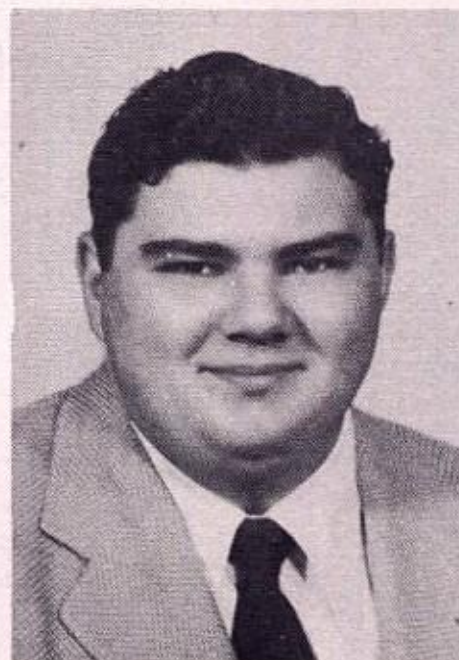

BAUDER, JANET

A swell girl who really gets around. Curly brown locks frame her pretty face. If her plans to become a school teacher go wrong, we're sure she'd make a first - rate model.

ABRAHAM, CHARLES

A jolly fellow, Charlie is one of the best natured boys in the class. Must believe in that ancient proverb, "Laugh and the World Laughs with you." One of the popular "Stardusters."

BECK, CAROLYN

A top - notch student whose plans include both business and nursing. She'll surely reach the top with that know - how and perserverance. Could never quite see the logic behind chemistry, though.

ALEXANDER, JOAN

Flashing eyes and a friendly smile are her prime attributes. Seems to focus most of her interest on our out of town boys. Why not give the local boys a break, too, Joan?

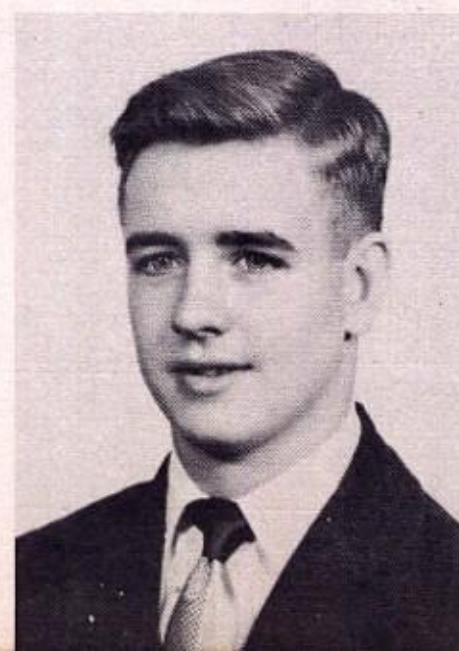

BIASINI, AMERICOLE

A most talented musician. Hand him just about any instrument and he'll play it for you. Spends lots of time keeping his school marks on top. His main business, though - heading the "Stardusters."

BANNIGAN, RICHARD

Surrounded by a crowd of girls wherever he goes. Is it his big happy smile or that snappy line of chatter that attracts them? Proved himself a big help to the football squad this year.

BIELECKI, IRENE

One of our silent stars, Irene is a gal who makes every word count. A whiz at getting ads for our "Baronet" this year. Proved that she can really come through when needed.

BISCOTTI, BEVERLY

Short and sweet. Always laughing wherever she goes. She was right on the ball, too, when it came to dishing up those delicious sundaes at Washburn's.

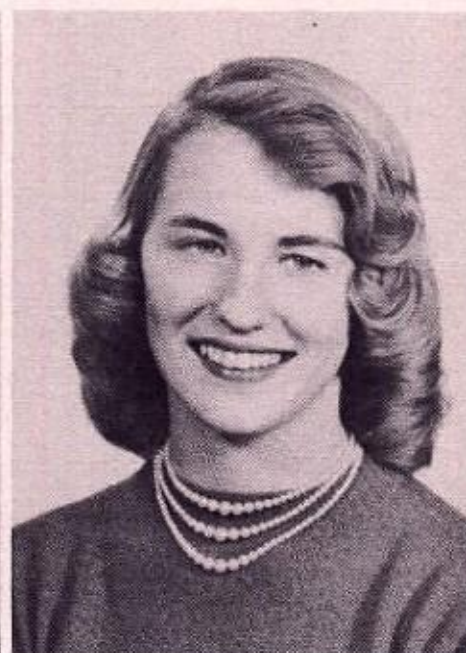

BRUNETTO, ELIZABETH

Popular among her schoolmates, Liz was chosen Queen of the Junior Prom last May. Makes herself heard when leading cheers at football games. Well known for a laugh that echoes through the halls of J.H.S.

BISCOTTI, JEAN

A capable girl who's a real pal when it comes to last minute homework. Her main ambition - - nursing. With those brains and that patient, helpful, manner, how can she keep from achieving her goal?

BUNNER, HILDAGARDE

The old saying, "Gentlemen prefer blondes," has certainly been proven by Hilda. Her shiny golden hair always attracts attention. Another top - notch cheerleader, she was always on hand to cheer the boys on to victory.

BRIGGS, PAUL

One of those industrious fellows, Paul believes in making spare time count. You'll find him down at the Acme, selling everything from soup to nuts.

CASAGRANDE, DORIS

Could those snapping brown eyes have had anything to do with the large number of tickets sold for our ball games? A girl who's right there when she's needed.

BROWN, ROBERT

"Brownie's" favorite expression seems to be, "You want to hear a good joke?" Talks at a fast and furious pace. It's now you see him, now you don't when he steps into that red convertible of his.

CHARSKY, FAYE

Pert and pretty. Can be seen running in and out of town with Mary in that Chevy. They always seem to be heading for Amsterdam. What's the attraction down there, Faye?

CHRISTMAN, BERNICE

That twinkle in her eye signifies a grand sense of humor. A lucky girl who gets a ride right to our door on the school bus. Likes to sing, too.

CLEARY, MARGARET

A grand and gracious girl who's liked by everyone. Acting as President of the Girls' Hi - Y really kept Peg busy. Certainly makes the pins fly at the bowling alley.

CHRISTMAN, EDNA MAE

Loves children so much she decided to be an elementary school teacher. Can't help but charm the kiddies with that friendly disposition.

All the kids that would be the great clerk want to be like her. Edna Mae

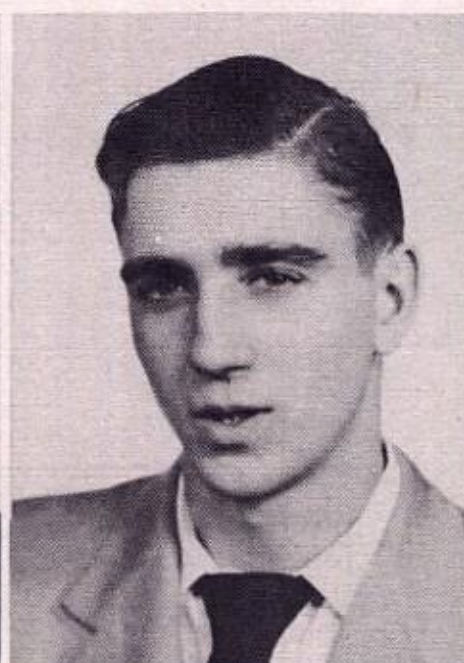

COCO, ANTHONY

From the way Tony is heading right now, we predict that before long he'll be the number one manager at Woolworth's. Always ready for a good laugh or a good joke.

CIPOLLA, SALVATORE

One of our mighty football players, Sal is an all - around boy who really has what it takes. Whatever would this smooth dancer do without St. Anthony's?

COSTA, EDMOND

Very active in boy scouting, Ed earned the rank of Eagle Scout last year. Put in a fine performance, too, as one of our fighting football linemen.

CLARK, GARY

Tickles the ivories for that dance band. A boy with versatility plus! Does well in sports, dramatics, and - - in just about everything.

Don't ever forget dramatics class and 3rd period library! Lots of luck in the future. Louise

DAVIS, LOUISE

Pretty and pleasant. One of our friendliest, she's always ready to lend a helping hand to her string of friends. Her literary talents were put to good use on our school publications.

DeBEVOISE, MARTHA

A friendly gal who helps keep the public library going. Likes to play the piano and must be pretty good at it, too, because she plays at all the Rotary Club meetings.

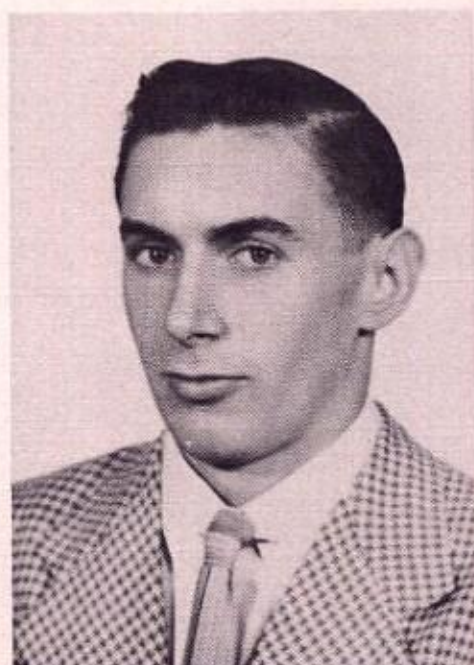

FAHERTY, MARGARET

Love that naturally curly hair. Peg won't have to bother looking for a secretarial job. With those big blue eyes and that winning smile she'll have the bosses applying to her.

DUESLER, JOHN

This fun - loving boy's approach is usually heralded by the yodeling horn on that green Dodge. It can be heard for miles around. A swell fellow, he's always ready to give you a lift.

FALIVENO, KATHRYN

Has the boys at her heels not only when she's leading those Teroga Cadets but wherever else she happens to be, too. It's no wonder, with Kate's personable manner.

to the best of the North Enders just ahead

EAGAN, MARTIN

If interested in learning to stand on your head, just see Marty, our authority on gymnastics. Never seems to wear out his jaws with that constant chatter. We like that curly hair, too.

FILMER, ELWOOD

A quiet but popular guy. Leading our happy crew as senior class president has kept Elwood busy. That capability, plus an unassuming air, point the way to a successful future.

*To a swell girl
Best wishes
(Remember names) Chaswell*

EMPIE, NEIL

Usually found wearing a big grin. Worked hard this year as co - editor of the "Baronet's" photography staff. But there was lots of fun to be had during and after those editor's meetings, wasn't there, Neil?

FISHER, BARBARA

A gal with a touch of the artistic. Supported the yearbook with some pretty neat art work. Barbara is always willing to help out in one way or another. Quite a bowler, too.

FRANKE, PATRICIA

Nice to have around. Loves a good time and really helps to make one. Insists that she wants to be a school teacher. If she does, she'll certainly keep her classes lively.

GRAEF, PAULINE

New York's gain and Pennsylvania's loss. During her two years here at J.H.S., she has gained a great many new friends with the aid of her gay and cheerful disposition. A steady patron of St. Anthony's.

FUGAZZOTTO, GRACE

One of J.H.S.'s number one glamour gals. "Gracie" can usually be found dancing at St. Anthony's or Sherman's. Always has plenty of partners. Likes to sing, too, and often bursts into song between classes.

GRANT, WHITNEY

Quite a "Whit." Kept classes lively by bursting out with some surprising but humorous opinions. Always a welcome addition to any crowd. He kept the class laughing with his always. Margaret Whit

GATTIE, JEAN

That red hair and happy - go - lucky manner makes you sit up and take notice. Just loves to go horseback riding. Thinking of becoming a cowgirl, Jean?

HAND, JOAN

We like Joan and that nice shade of auburn hair, too. Here's a real charmer and a true friend. Seems to have her time pretty well taken up with dates.

GIRARD, DELORES

Brown bangs frame a pretty face that is forever smiling. "Dee" attacks her schoolwork with the same vim and vigor she uses on her many extra - curricular activities. Ranks high both socially and scholastically.

HARDCASTLE, HELEN

Did a wonderful job as editor of the all - important "Baronet" advertising staff this year. Believes in doing well any job she tackles. Well illustrates that saying about big things in small packages. Remember those Speech and Dramatics classes. We had fun(?) we've had! Best of luck always Helen Ann

HAVLICEK, WILLIAM

That motorcycle and Bill are usually seen flying about town together. If you're in a hurry to get home, he'll get you there in a flash. If you're not feeling up to par on your arrival, don't say we didn't warn you.

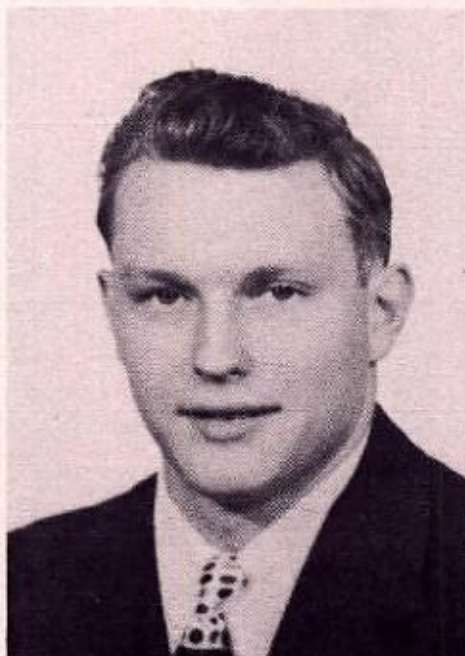

HIGEL, ROBERT

Kept our basketball team going as one of the managers. This lucky guy comes to school half - days. Makes his afternoons count by working at outside jobs.

HAYES, WILLIAM

A real he - man. Rates as one of our best athletes. Showed his good sportsmanship this year by managing the football team. Likes to pour out all his troubles and can always find a sympathetic ear.

HLADIK, MARY

She hopes to join the Waves after graduation. Supported the yearbook and showed her artistic ability while hard at work on the art staff. A nicer girl can't be found.

HEAGLE, GEORGIANA

As friendly and as helpful as can be. Her ready smile and good - nature make her an asset to any group. A loyal member of the Girls' Hi - Y and the Mike Club.

HOFFMAN, DAVID

When not hard at work carrying grocery boxes at the Acme, Dave used his brawn as one of our burly football linemen. It's hard to keep tabs on him. He's out of town so much.

HESEK, WILLIAM

Not heard from much in school, but outside he always seems to be having a good time. Was always on hand doing his utmost for our football team. Gained fame with some spectacular line play in B.C.H.S. game.

HOHENFORST, EDWARD

Six foot two, eyes of blue. That height of Ed's added a lot to this year's basketball team. Likes to laugh and joke with everyone. By the way, girls, he drives his own snappy blue Ford.

always waiting for that Bus
"Bill"

Don't ever forget that day at Lane's Black. Remember the graveyards? How could you forget a friend always Georgiana

JARABEK, RAYMOND

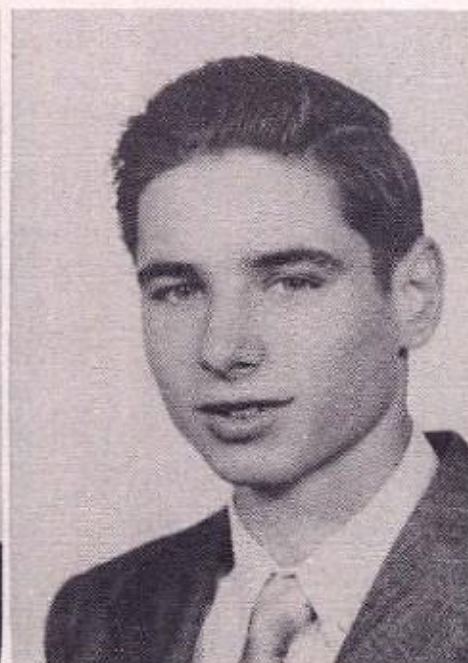

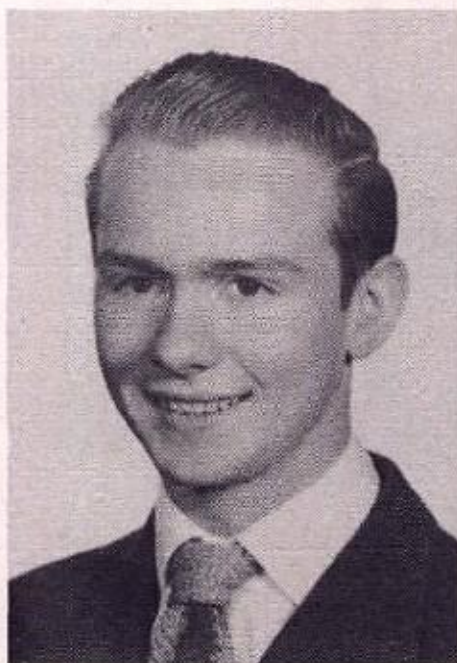

Ray will argue all period in social studies class if he needs to do so. Just loves to try to prove his point. Kept us up on all athletic news by heading the "Bugle" sports staff.

JOHNSON, JAMES

Another of our burly backs who put plenty of action into this year's football games. Keeps his homeroom well informed on sports activities -- when he can make it to school.

JOHANNES, RICHARD

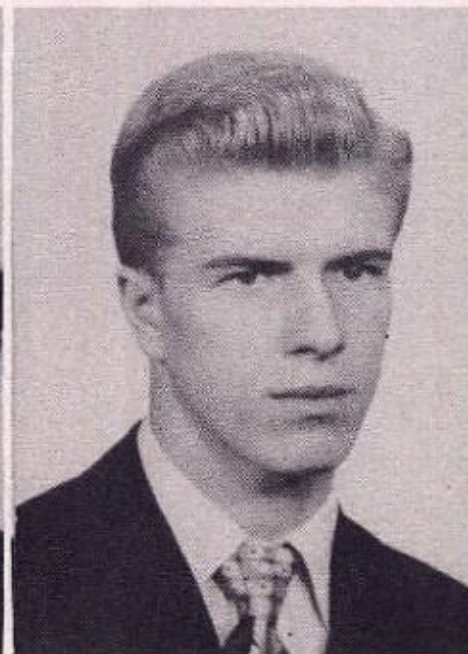

Our shy guy -- with the girls. When with the fellows, though, he really peps up. Unpredictable as the weather. He's a perennial late-comer. Always loaded with tardy excuses.

JOHNSON, RICHARD

A rugged fellow who enjoys the wide open spaces. Does not care a bit for the cramped conditions in schools. Favorite subject of conversation: his own hunting prowess.

JOHNSON, DORIS

A mighty nice girl who's a little on the quiet side. She can always be relied upon to do her best. Learned the art of cooking and sewing in all those Home Ec. courses.

KAISER, JAMES

The "Casanova" of the Class of '52. Jim really loves to tease all the gals. He's also renowned around J.H.S. for his high jumping feats. There's no lead in this boy's feet.

JOHNSON, HENRY

The boy who knows how to brighten everyone's day. His Motto: "Keep 'em smiling." Those remarks of his make you more than just smile, though. Tops with boys and girls both.

I'll see you now and then at Ben's Hank

KAISER, PATRICIA

Efficient and capable, Pat and her curly brown locks are often seen scurrying through the corridors to the Bugle room. She's well known, too, for her original art work and posters.

KANE, BETTY

Shiny auburn hair crowns Betty's smiling face. She's made many friends in her two years here at J.H.S. One of the few quiet girls in the class.

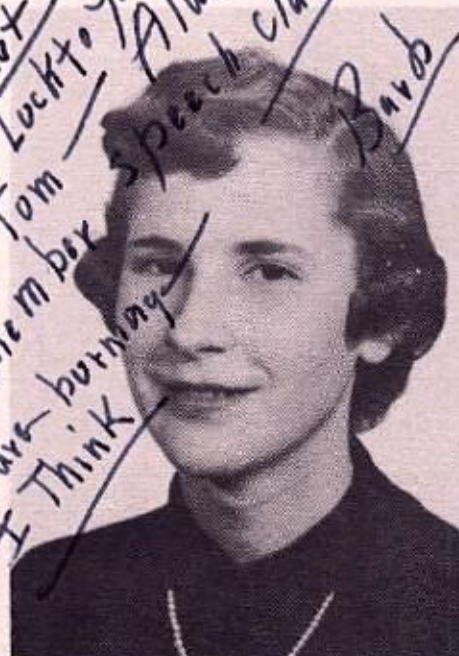

LANDERS, MYRNA

A blonde bombshell, small and peppy, who really believes in having fun. Don't ever call her a man-hater! Quite an athlete, too. She can really wallop that baseball.

KILMER, BARBARA

A girl with a smile for every occasion. No matter what the weather, Barb is always around to add an extra touch of sunshine. One of the girls from the deep north - - and proud of it, too.

MAJOR, JAMES

To the unsuspecting eye, Jim may seem like a quiet boy, but just start him talking. That lad will never stop. Thinks homeroom period's the time to exercise vocal chords.

KOMORNIK, MARY

Our girl with personality plus. Ranks at the top scholastically, too. Her literary genius added much to both "Bugle" and "Baronet." On the go in and out of school.

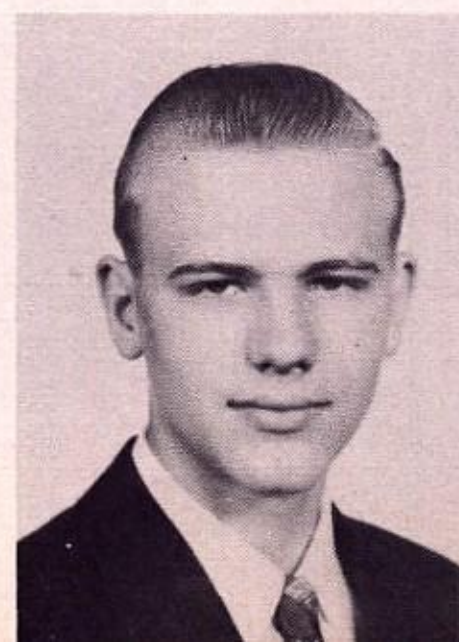

MARTIN, WALTER

"If ever the devil was born - -", but everybody enjoys all Walt's devilry. His sense of humor is really tremendous. He drives (?) around in a pretty flashy jalopy, too.

KOVARIK, GEORGE

The last of the Kovariks. George follows right in his brother's footsteps by displaying some terrific basketball. Never, never without his pal, Pete.

MCGIVERN, JAMES

Quiet and friendly, Jim's smile is his trademark. He can't see much good in school, but still we like to have him around.

MCMARTIN, PATRICIA

Practically perfect in every way, Pat is one girl who is destined for success. She can make beautiful music whether she plays the piano or tootles her clarinet. And she loves to make with the witty remarks.

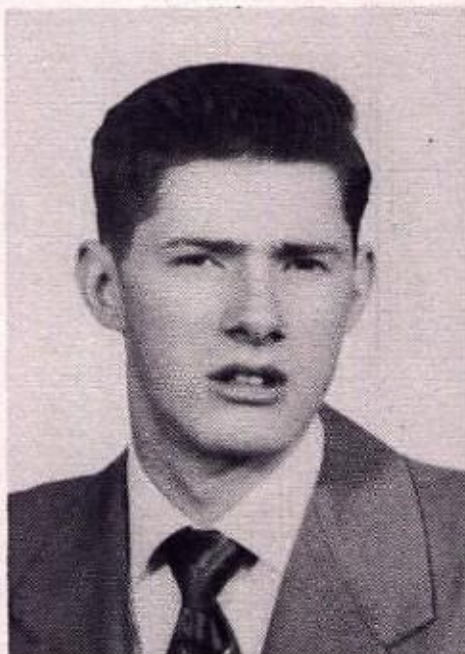

ORLOSKY, ELINOR

Pert and peppy, with a twinkle in those big, brown eyes of hers. A whiz on the typewriter, she was a real help to the Baronet. Her favorite haunt - -Russo's, of course.

Bright, sunny afternoons really got the three blind mice - you know who I mean for Tedrick

MULLINS PAUL

A little bit of blarney fills the head of this smiling Irishman. Paul enjoys racing the clock to school every morning. One of the "madmen" in Room 24.

PEDRICK, PATRICIA

Tall and terrific especially on the athletic field. Even her bowling average would do a professional proud. That sparkle in her eyes can be matched by an equally brilliant one on her third finger, left hand, lucky girl.

NELLIS, MARGARET

So nice - - and so quiet. One of those girls who sees only the best in everyone. With her personality, we know there's nothing but the best in Margaret, too.

PEMRICK, KATHLEEN

Did you ever see her without a smile on her face? Her manner is as cheery as that smile, too. Katy keeps everyone well posted on intercity affairs.

NELLIS, ROBERT

A boy who's never too busy to say hello. An avid record fan, Bob knows all that's "tops in pops."

PFEIL, HENRY

Cool, calm and without a worry. Hank makes sure that nothing ever bothers him. Likes to gad about in that flashy car of his.

PIKUL, JOHN

John lives, eats, and breathes art. He's a J.H.S. claim to fame in the department. Head of the Baronet Art Staff, he had a whale (?) of a time at the editors' meetings.

ROSENTHAL, ANN

Vitality - - with a capital V. Full of bright ideas, our lady editor really put life into this year's "Baronet". A brilliant mind and an equally brilliant personality.

RALBOVSKY, PETER

Pete and his personality are tops around J.H.S. That car (?) of his is always crowded - - with boys, of course. One of the stalwarts of the mighty North End Gang.

SAMEK, SHIRLEY

"Shirl" - - with a sparkle in her eye and a smile on her lips. Here's the girl who really kept the presses rolling at J.H.S. as "Bugle" editor. Known especially for her sizzling personality.

RANERI, CARMELA

There's music in her heart - - and rhythm in her feet. If you can't find Millie at St. Anthony's, she's bound to be cavorting around the "Y" dance floor. A terror with a bowling ball.

SCHULENBURG, JOAN

A gal who enjoys life - every golden minute of it. Seems to spend most of those minutes in the vicinity of Russo's, though. Fun to have around and always around when needed.

RODWELL, JOYCE

Here's proof positive that big things come in little packages. Whatever Joyce lacks in height, though, she certainly makes up for in pep. Who said she didn't like school, anyway.

SCHUYLER, RICHARD

The boy with a big bass fiddle and a big bass voice of his own. We never hear quite enough of the voice, though. It seems as if there's always plenty of excitement when Dick and the boys get together.

SHADIS, MARY

Our own gal about town - - and neighboring towns. Mary and her little black car really keep the highways busy. Always ready with a jolly remark or two. And what remarks!

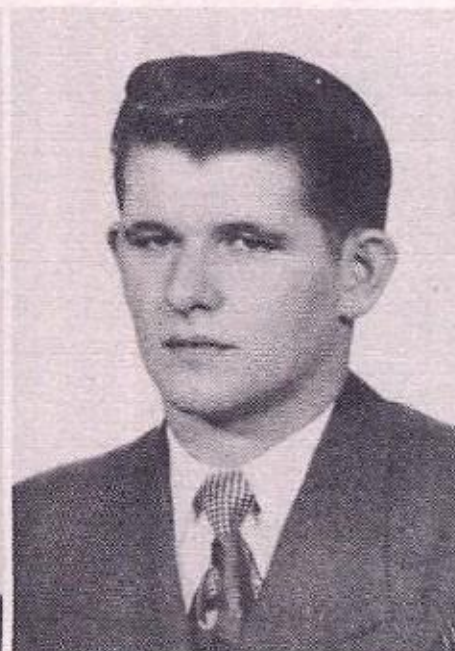

SMITH, HELEN

Neat and efficient, with lots of glamour and fashion know - how. Her styling is straight from the latest issue of "Vogue". She's famous for that cute little giggle, too.

SHULTS, SHIRLEY

Another blonde with personality. Shirley adds fun to any crowd. What an efficient secretary she'll make for a lucky boss. Right in step on the dance floor, too.

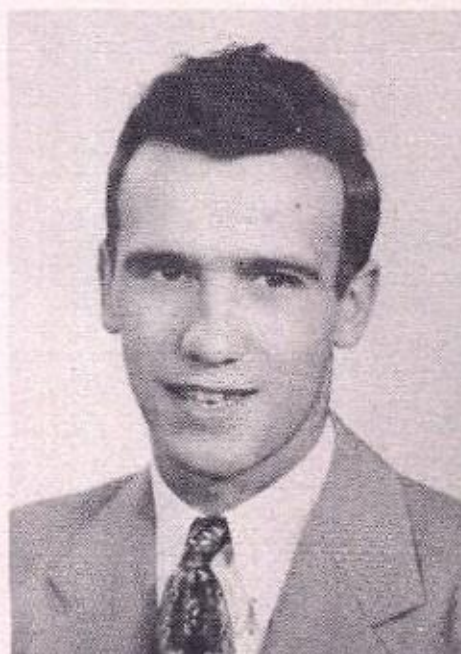

SMITH, MILTON

Our mighty football captain who's famous for digging dirt - - on the football field or on the farm. A boy with a thousand nicknames, Milt will answer with a smile to any one of them.

SKVORAK, FRANCIS

The boy that you can't say enough nice things about. Full of pep and personality, Skuff is right at home in any field - - athletic or scholastic. There's mischief in his eyes and humor in his words.

SMITH, PHYLLIS

With a song in her heart and a smile on her face. To know Phil is to like her - and her sense of humor. Heading the Mike Club gave her plenty of opportunity to use it.

SLOVIC, JOHN

Fun and fancy free. There's never a dull - - or quiet moment when Butch is around. A shifty little halfback, he really gained yardage for the football team.

SOVIK, PAUL

Capability counts where Paul is concerned. His achievements as business manager of Baronet and art editor for "Bugle" speak for themselves. He's right on top scholastically. And those witty remarks of his really deserve credit, too.

Watch out for Eleanor and the boy. They are both bad! Love you forever, your A. M. Butch

Is one of the nicest girls I know. I mean it, Janet. You're a real good kid. The best of everything

3 years ago I just kidded. I'll never forget your no matter how far apart we are!! Love, Phyll.

*I hope you're sure not hooked!!
mypt*

STEARNS, MYRTLE

A quiet country lass who gets the most out of school. Spends most of her time helping Miss Elwood in the library.
She certainly knows how to make herself useful.

VAN DERWERKEN, ALICE

We love the sunshine in her smile and all the laughter in her eyes. That personality of hers is always sunny, too. Never to be forgotten around school for her "rocket yell".

STREETER, BARBARA

Plenty of pep plus a dash of the dramatic.
Quite a combination when added to Barb's good looks. Her debating skills and convincing arguments certainly kept English class humming.

VELISKY, JANICE

Likeable and conscientious in her work, Janice is a familiar friend to everyone. She spent her junior year in a Canadian high school.
Must be she believes in an international education.

SWEDBERG, DONALD

A tall frame topped with a splash of fiery red hair. That serene temperament doesn't fit your carrot top, Don. One of the daring souls who braved the storms of solid geometry.

WARREN, DANIEL

Our Danny boy is another of those
"smiling Irishmen".
His school spirit and enthusiasm stand at the top of the list.
Often seen gadding about in a neat black car. How about a ride, Dan?

SWEETMAN, JAMES

Jim is just one sweet man. That silent he - man approach of his is really terrific.
Lives a long, long way from school. Maybe that's why it's often so hard for him to make it. Right, Jim?

WASHBURN, ROBERT

A boy who's either right on the ball or right behind it - - eight ball, that is.
Mighty handy with a trumpet. Remembered best around J.H.S.
for his famous "Charge".

WILDER, CHARLES

Speedy's a powerful little bundle of dynamite. He really explodes when turned loose on a football field, or cinder path. That lock of blonde hair just never stays put, does it?

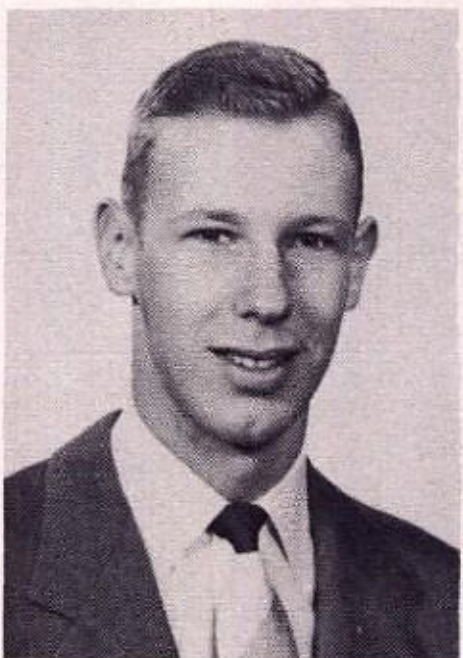

WOYTON, JOAN

Forever smiling, she's always ready with a gay "Hello!" Tops in school spirit, tops in studies, too. Proved herself quite an actress in the operetta and had plenty of fun during rehearsals, too.

WILKINSON, JAMES

The boy with the A+ personality - - - and the brains to match. Success is just natural with Jim. All that rubber legged basketball playing plus plenty of football skill makes "Wilkie" a big sports headliner.

YAGER, LEAH

Happy-go-lucky and without a care. Leah has fun just being Leah. Thinks there's no joke like a funny one. However, she'll laugh at them all. Her secret love - - biology.

WINDSOR, EUGENE

Cool, calm and collected in every situation. Nothing ever seems to fluster Gene. Spent plenty of time in Florida, drinking in the sunshine. Maybe that explains the sunny disposition.

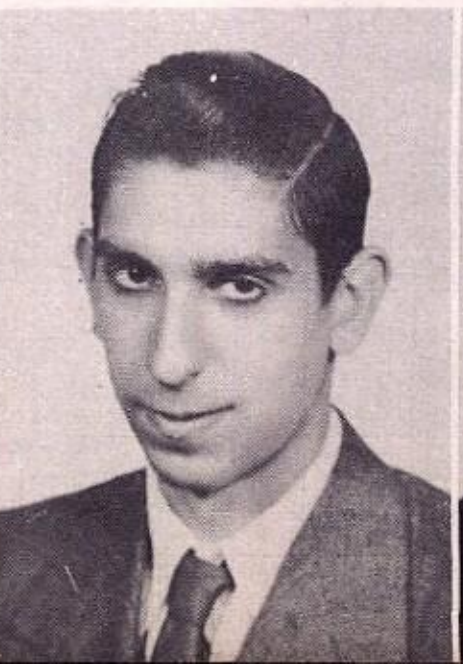

YOUNG, A. RALPH

Tall, trim and terrific. Had quite a time leading the zany bunch in Commercial Room. Always seems to be surrounded by a fun - loving group of boys.

WITTMAN, FRANK

At last, a boy in the class who is quiet - - in school. Once outside, though, he really peeps up. Also possesses another rare quality -- he likes to mind his own business.

ZAYICEK, AGNES

Gay and peppy, with a smile that's been breaking hearts since third grade. She's never at a loss for words. One of our ablest cheerleaders, Aggie put her heart - - and hope - - into every game.

ZINTER, JANET

Sweet and sensible. She's the last in the class alphabetically-- but she leads the list when it comes to friendliness. Quite an athlete, she's a welcome addition to any team.

Scholastic Leaders

MARY KOMORNIK
Salutatorian

Sharing honors as salutatorian of the class of '52 with an average of 94.7 is Mary Komornik. Besides maintaining a high scholastic average, Mary has also achieved honors in extracurricular activities for two years. She has served as president of her homeroom. She was elected president of Student Council. In school publications she is co-feature editor of BUGLE and co-literary editor of BARONET. Other activities include Girl's Hi Y and Mike and Spotlight Club. She has served on the Prom and Ring Committees and is a member of Senior Play Cast. Her scholastic awards include prizes in mathematics, Latin, biology and physics. She has also been elected a member of the National Honor Society.

PATRICIA McMARTIN
Valedictorian

Top honors in the class of '52 go to Patricia McMARTIN. Pat has for three years been a member of band. For two years she has been a member of French Club. This year her activities included being president of Friendship Club, news editor of BUGLE, and a member of the senior play cast. Her interest in sports has won her the Athletic Award and a position as Senior Life Saver. Pat has many scholastic honors including prizes in mathematics, social studies, English, French, and the French National Contest Medal. As a junior Pat received the Balfour Prize and this year she has been elected to the National Honor Society.

SHIRLEY SAMEK
Salutatorian

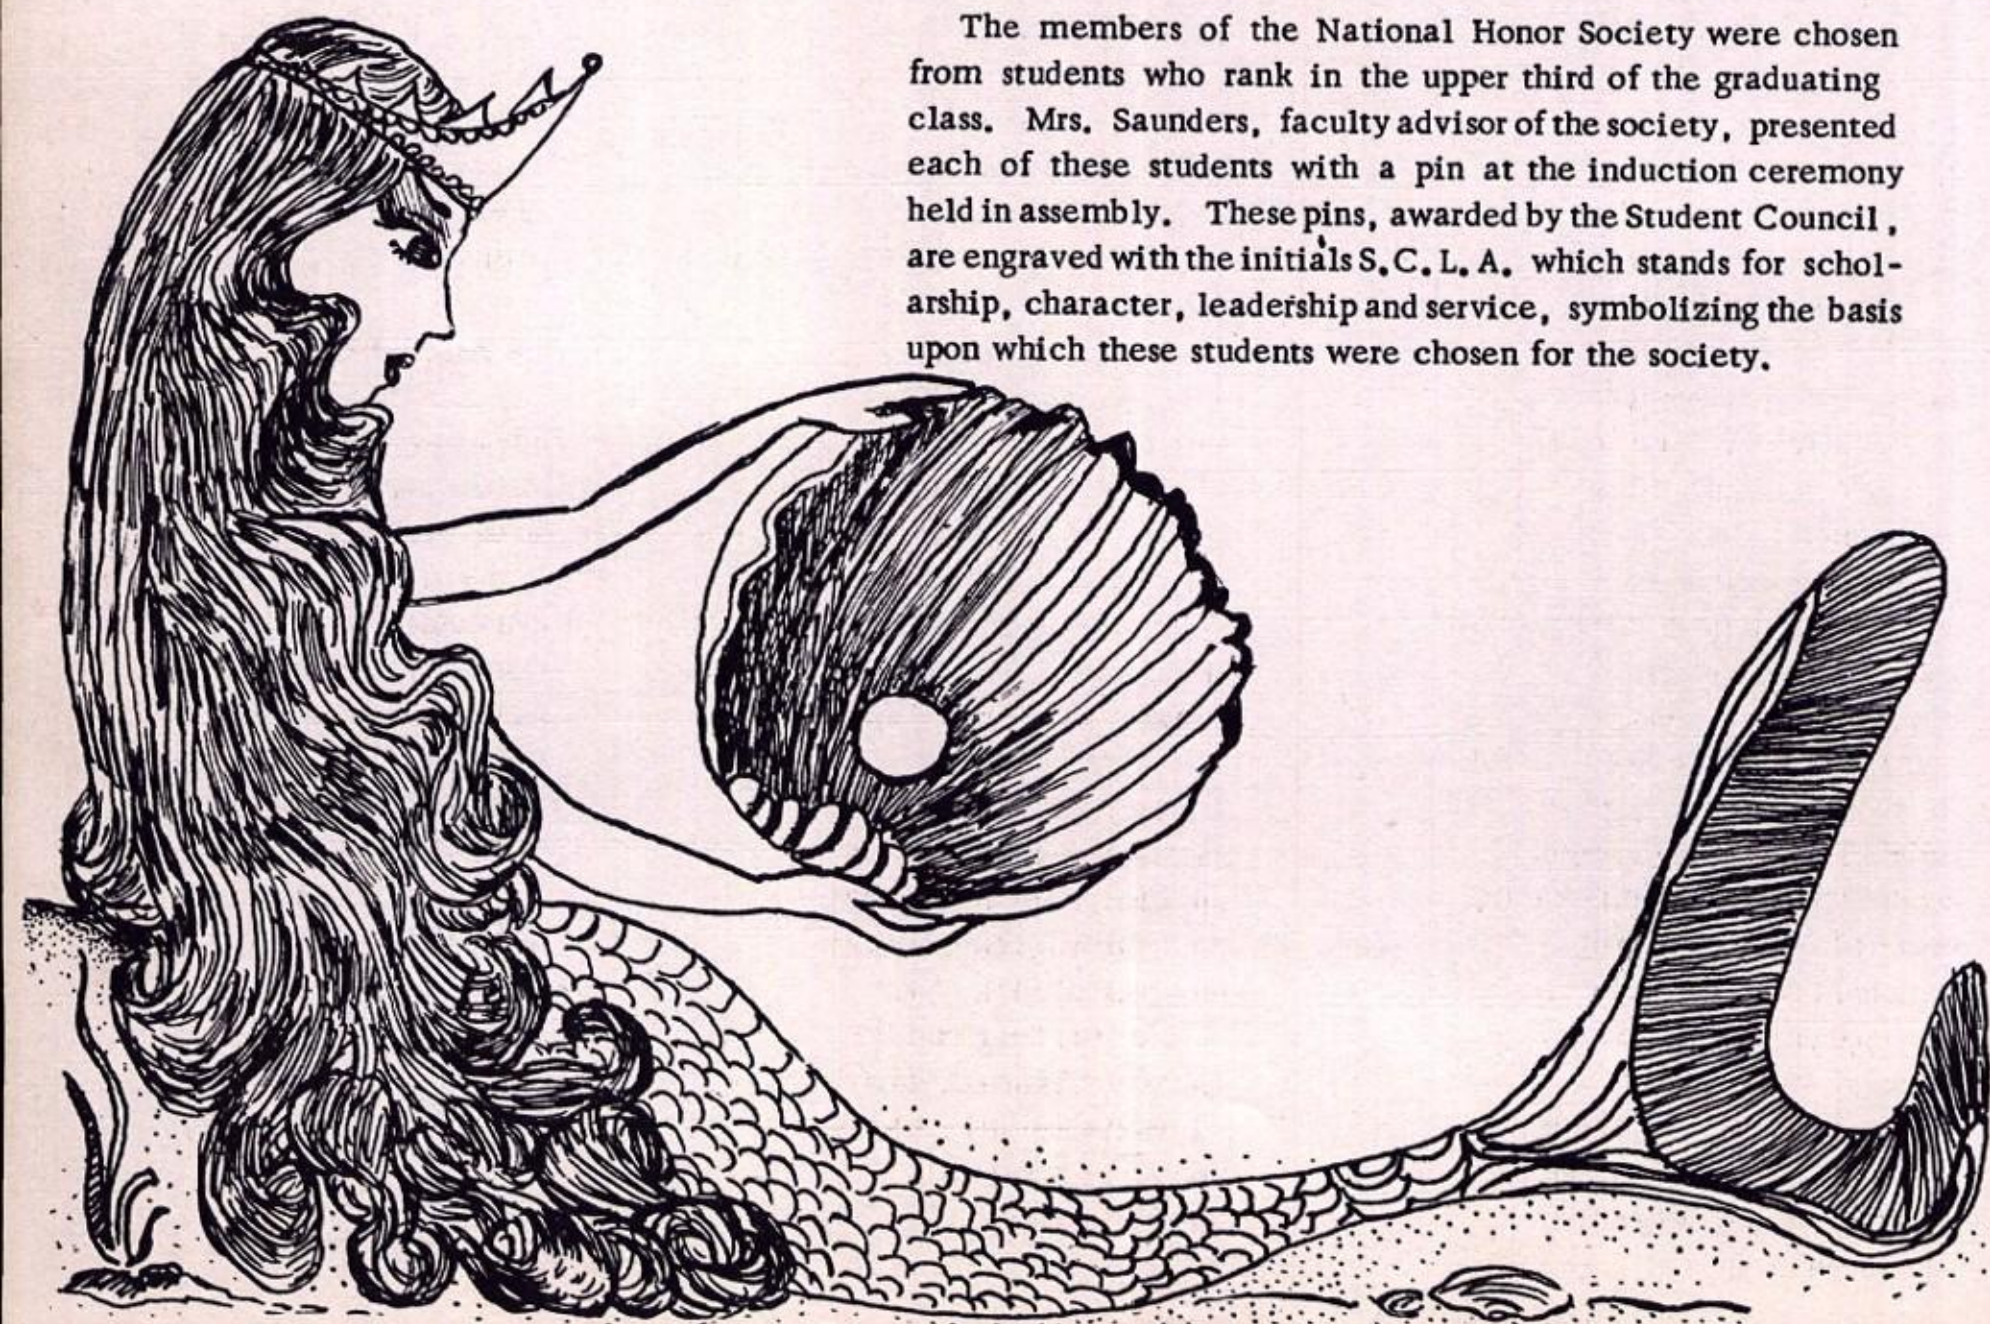

One of the co-salutatorians of the class of '52 is Shirley Samek, whose four years high school average is 94.7. For three years a member of BUGLE Staff, in her Senior year Shirley was named its Editor-in-Chief. She is also a member of the BARONET Staff, Friendship Club, and for three years has been elected vice president of her homeroom. Shirley was a member of the Junior Prom Committee and is this year an assistant director of the Senior Play. Her many athletic activities have been rewarded with the Athletic Award and the Athletic Award star. Shirley has this year been elected to the National Honor Society.

CLASS HISTORY

It is now time for the Seniors of '52 to make an accounting of their life in J.H.S., and to swim away into strange waters. We are the "Star" fish it is true, but we have worked hard for that privileged name.

We are proud to say that we have given several members of our "school" a chance to hold the important positions of class officers. This year we started off well when we elected Elwood Filmer as our chief "O - fish - al." Elwood's able assistant was that fleet-footed, piano playing Gary Clark. Margaret Cleary kept records of our long trip up stream, and Polly Graef saw to it that no fins were lost on the way.

Some of the ablest "muscles" of our "school" include Milt Smith, Jim Wilkinson, Whit Grant, Dick Bannigan, Sal Cipolla, and Dave Hoffman. Darting in and out, trying to keep our spirits up when the rapids got rough and we were headed for a fall, were our cheerleaders, Agnes Zayicek, Alice VanDerwerken, Dee Girard, Hilda Bunner, and Elizabeth Brunetto.

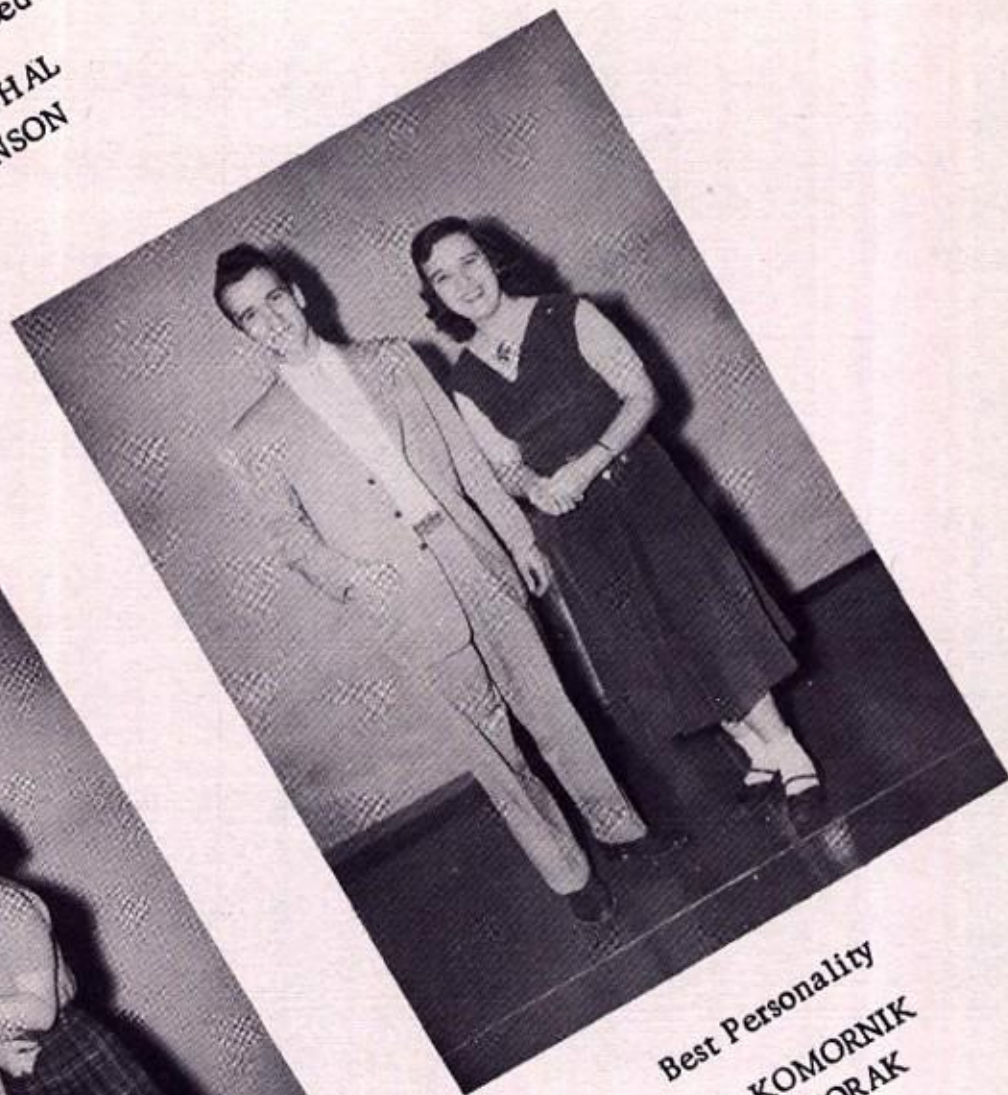

Keeping track of all those "in the swim" was a time-consuming job, as Shirley Samek, Editor of Sir Bill's Bugle, can tell you. So that in years to come we will not forget even the little minnows (sophomores), Ann Rosenthal, as Editor of our Baronet, recorded their progress, along with that of the juniors and seniors.

We did a lot of work in these last three years, but we have also taken time out along our watery way to play a bit. We'll always remember our stop at the south sea island festival of Junior Prom, where we found our Queen, Elizabeth Brunetto, reigning over festivities. After getting through the murky depths of regents, we could let our fins down and really enjoy the annual Senior Ball. Having completed the last stretch of our journey through J.H.S., we can only hope that our journey through life will be as successful.

Junior Class

CLASS HISTORY

Starting off our careers as mere minnows, we mighty juniors advanced to the status of flying fish! Bernard Hladik, elected to lead our class, was supported by very capable officers; Jennie Brunetto as Vice President, Victor Ragusa as secretary, and Leona Conti as treasurer.

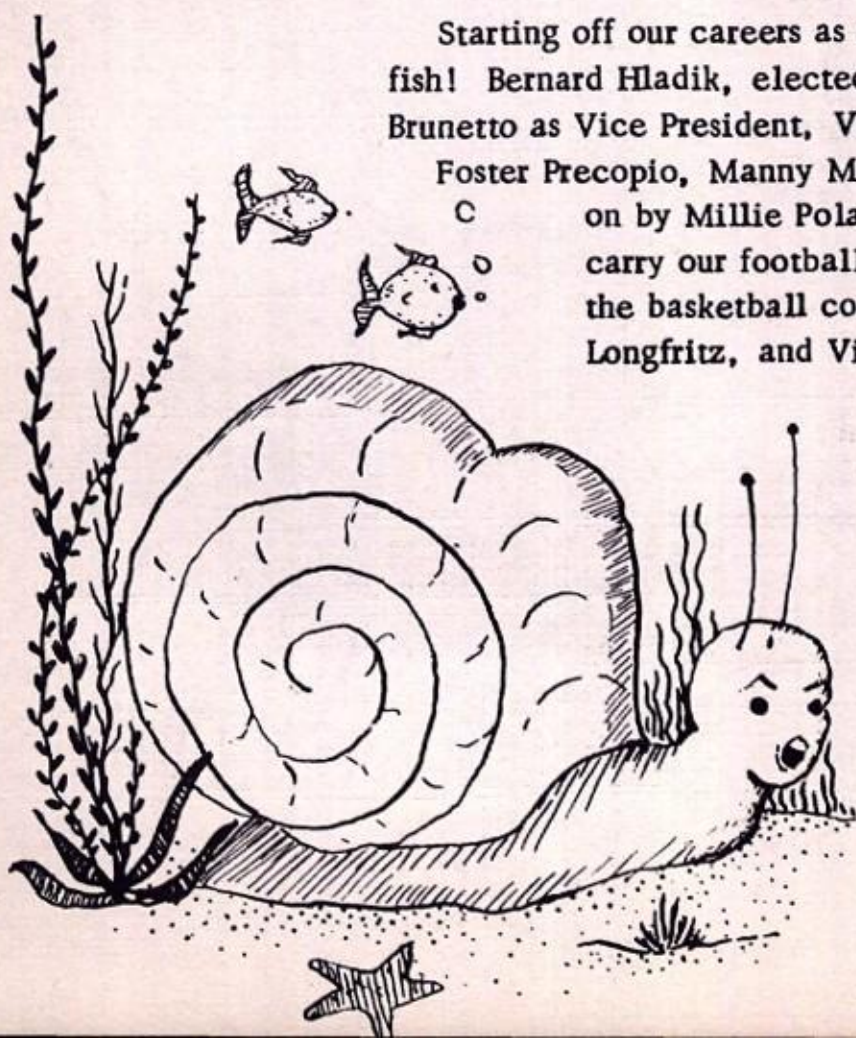

Foster Precopio, Manny Mezzano, Joe Cerrone, William Pollak, and Gary Cerrone, cheered on by Millie Polacek of our varsity squad as well as our J. V. cheerleaders, helped carry our football team through a very successful season. The honor of J.H.S. on the basketball court was upheld by "Pete" Precopio, William Putman, William Longfritz, and Victor Ragusa, as well as other junior cagers.

David Bowers, Charles Nethaway, and Patricia Bartlett have done outstanding work in the band, while Bernard Hladik has contributed much in the field of dramatics.

Of course we shall never forget the night of the Junior Prom or the arrival of our class rings as two of the most exciting events in the history of the class.

Having completed our second year in Sr. High, we, the class of '53 are looking forward to a third and even better year as seniors, when we will be the starfish of J.H.S.

Seated: J. Brunetto, Mrs. Dunlap, Advisor, L. Conti, Standing: V. Ragusa, B. Hladik

Sophomore Class

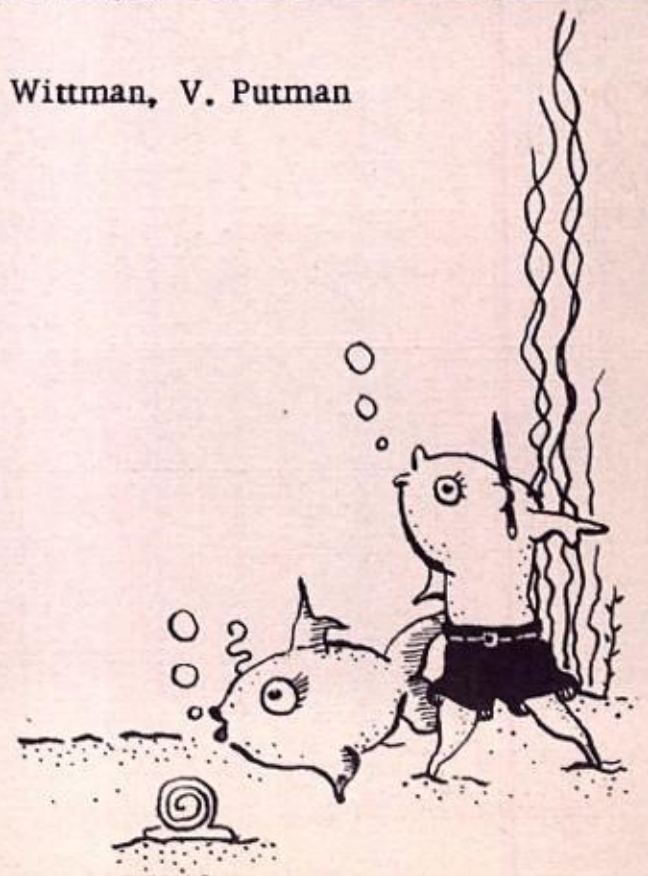

Seated: R. Girard, Miss Powell, advisor, C. Leotta. Standing: E. Wittman, V. Putman

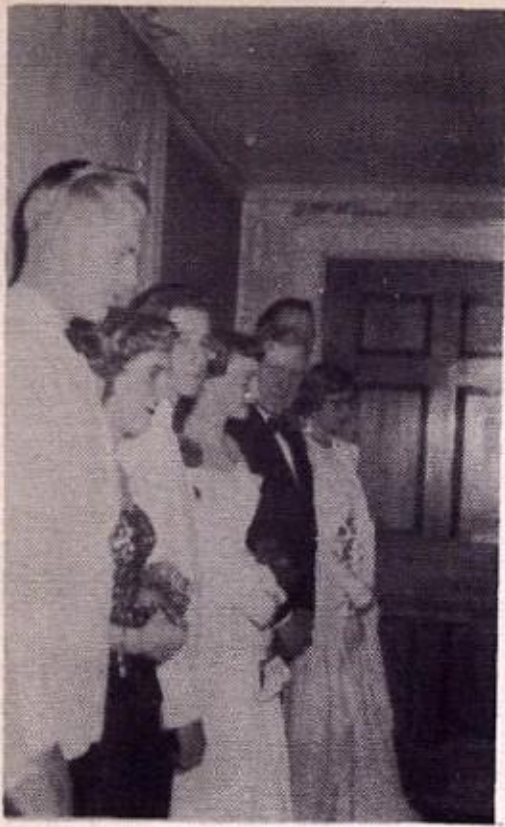

When we, the shrimps of Johnstown High School, entered this great school of fish, we had to have some sort of leadership. For president we chose Rodney Girard and to help him, Carmelia Leotta as vice-president. In charge of our money, we put Violet Putman, and Elizabeth Wittman was elected secretary. With all the juniors and seniors on Student Council, Steve Ralbovsky was elected treasurer of that governing body.

To maintain this pace of 100 per cent participation, it was necessary for Richard Zayicek, Barry Bump, James Havilek, Edwin Swedberg, and Steve Ralbovsky to play football. Keeping the crowd at the games in good spirits were Lynn Walrath and Helen Wock as Jayvee cheerleaders.

All in all we had a rather successful year, even if we were only shrimps. We're quite certain we'll be even more successful when we become the big fish of J.H.S.

The Baronet Staff, under the direction of Ann Rosenthal, Editor - in - Chief, and Paul Sovik, Business Manager, this year dove into the depths of Davey Jones' locker to uncover the log of school life and activities at JHS -- the '52 Baronet.

With Miss Rita Daly guiding the way as advisor, the editors and their various staffs began plans for the book early in September and as the year progressed, spent harried hours angling for snapshots, checking "fishy" stories, and reeling in ads from local merchants.

At editorial meetings the staff spent busy hours rushing to meet important deadlines. At last, as the year came to an end, they brought forth the BARONET, the product of their yearlong efforts.

Sir Bill's Bugle spent a successful year wading through the vast waters of the J.H.S. halls, seeping out all the bits of information of student interest. Monthly meetings were held in addition to brief staff reports. A final picnic proved to be a gay ending to the year's work. The editor - in - chief, Shirley Samek, the business manager, Pat Kaiser, and art editor, Paul Sovik, represented the paper at the annual conference of high school papers in Syracuse. Mrs Mildred B. Richmond, business advisor, accompanied the students. Mrs. Harriet B. Lorence gave her "schools" of knowledge to the writers and Miss Virginia Cavoretto supervised the production staff.

This year Girls Hi - Y swam through many activities under the advisorship of Mrs. Dunlap. Beginning with initiation of new members and proceeding through to the traditional senior banquet, this year has been a busy one for the girls.

Helping to guide us through the misty depth that often confused the younger fishes were President Peggy Cleary, aided by Minnie Melita, Carolyn Palumbo, and Millie Polacek.

Mike and Spotlight Club, now in its third year, plunged into production and made a whale of a splash with an "all out" minstrel type assembly celebrating American Education Week. The title "High Spirits" was most suitable since it described those thirty members who rose to the bait of appearing in skits, plays and novelty assembly features. Leading these pert pisces is president Phyllis Smith, ably assisted by Gary Clark. Polly Graef checks the roll, and Grace Fugazzotto stores our fins in a safe place. Advisor, Mrs. Helen Q. Lathers, helps keep us off the hook and out of the net as she strives for bigger and better productions.

Standing: B. Hladik, Mrs. Lathers, G. Clark. Seated: P. Graef, P. Smith, G. Fugazzotto.

The Friendship Club, representing all classes, held its meetings at the homes of its members. This year's activities included a program at the Willing Helpers Home at Christmas time, playing Santa for a group of needy children, the annual tea, and the final mother - daughter banquet.

Patricia McMartin expertly guided the girls as president, Janet Bauder was vice - president, and Barbara Streeter served as secretary. Ann Rosenthal took expert care of financial matters, while Alice Van Derwerken reported meetings to the newspaper. The entertainment and educational programs for each meeting were under the direction of Shirley Samek.

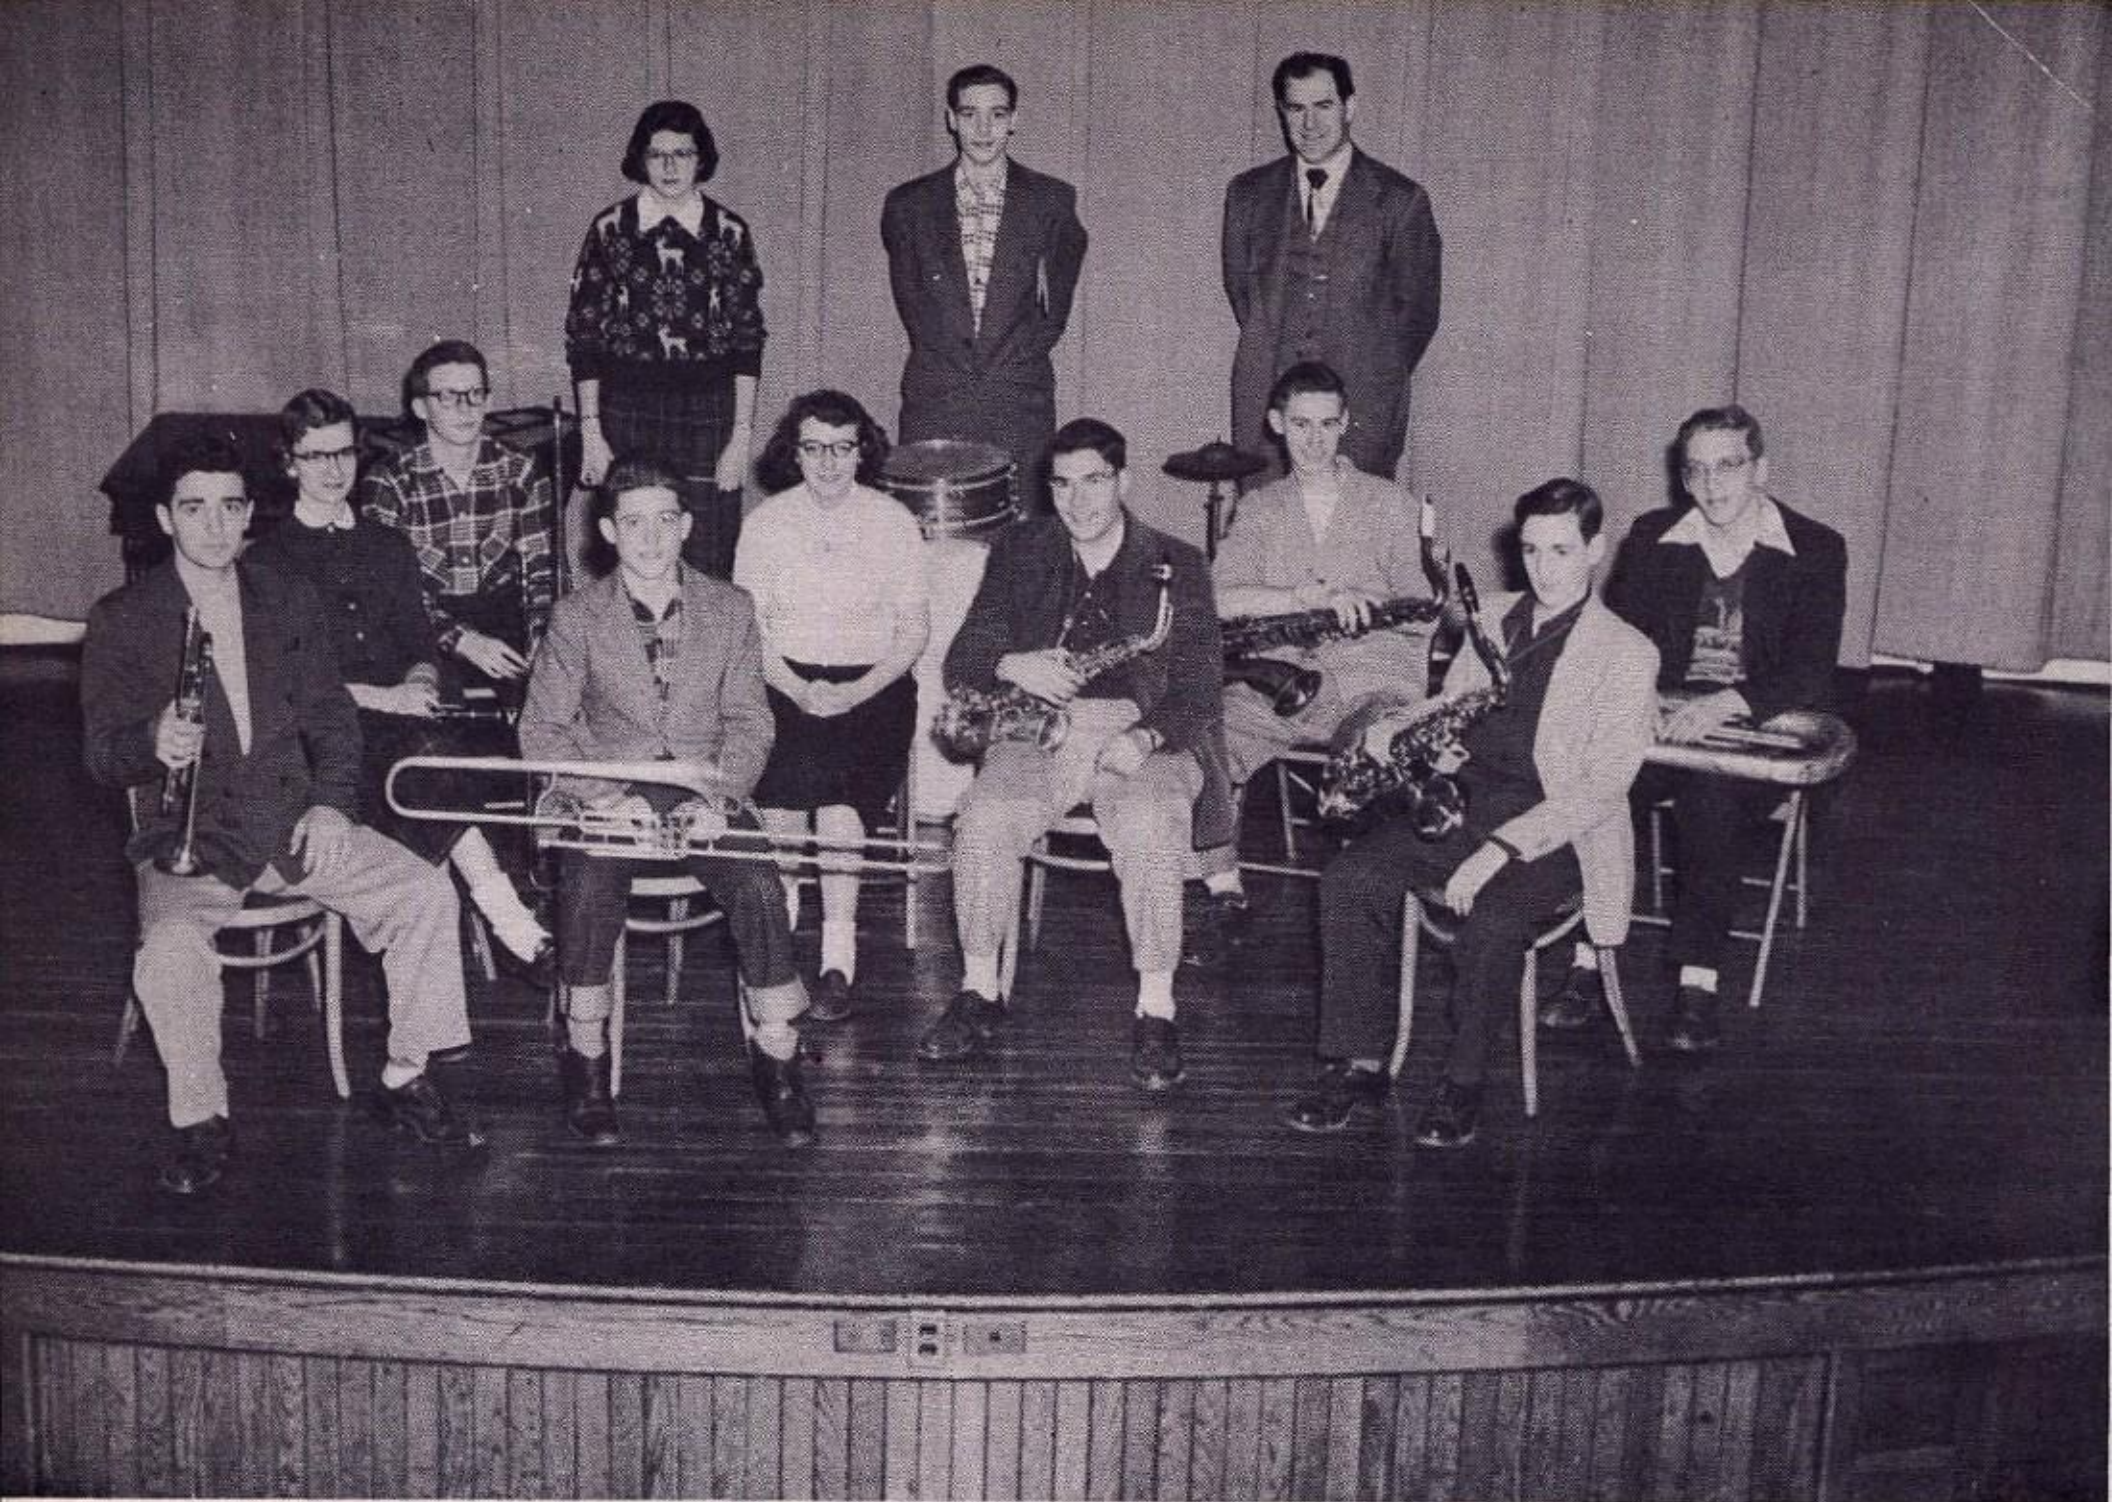

The club progressed with the leadership of the girls' "greatest friend", Mrs. Thomas L. Way.

Under the direction of Mr. Jack Wroble, the forty - piece marching band played at all home football games. This band consisted of students from Knox and High School. Their skill in the "scales" was well shown, for these musicians were also heard at the assembly programs, senior play and graduation.

These "tuna fish" chose as their officers: Charles Nethaway, President; Patricia McMartin, Vice President; and Patricia Bartlett, Record Keeper.

Chorus

First row, left to right: S. Putman, C. Earl, B. Kane, V. Putman, E. Brunetto, A. Van Derwerken, M. Polacek, D. Stott, B. Christman, M. Nellis, D. Girard, J. Woyton.

Abraham, R. Schuyler, C. Gerlach, R. Nellis, J. Stewart, W. Wormuth, R. Washburn, A. Biasini, R. Bannigan, P. McMartin.

"Shreds and Patches"

Under the direction of Mr. Jantschi the chorus has been particularly active, making appearances at several school assemblies throughout the year.

During the Fall this group presented an operetta, "Shreds and Patches", adapted from Gilbert and Sullivan. The preparation involved a great deal of hard work, but the outcome was a success.

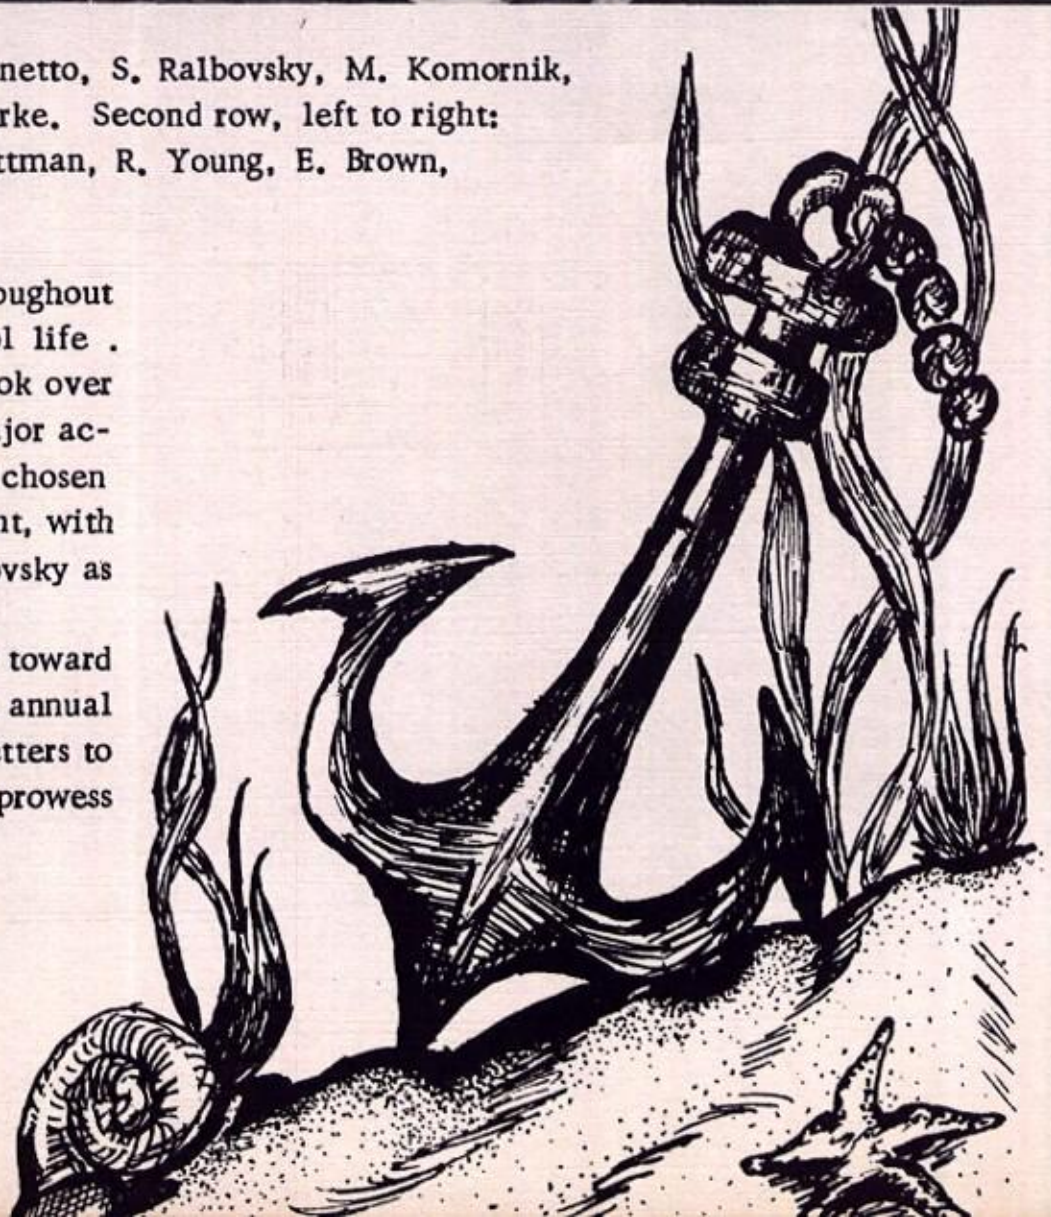

Student Council

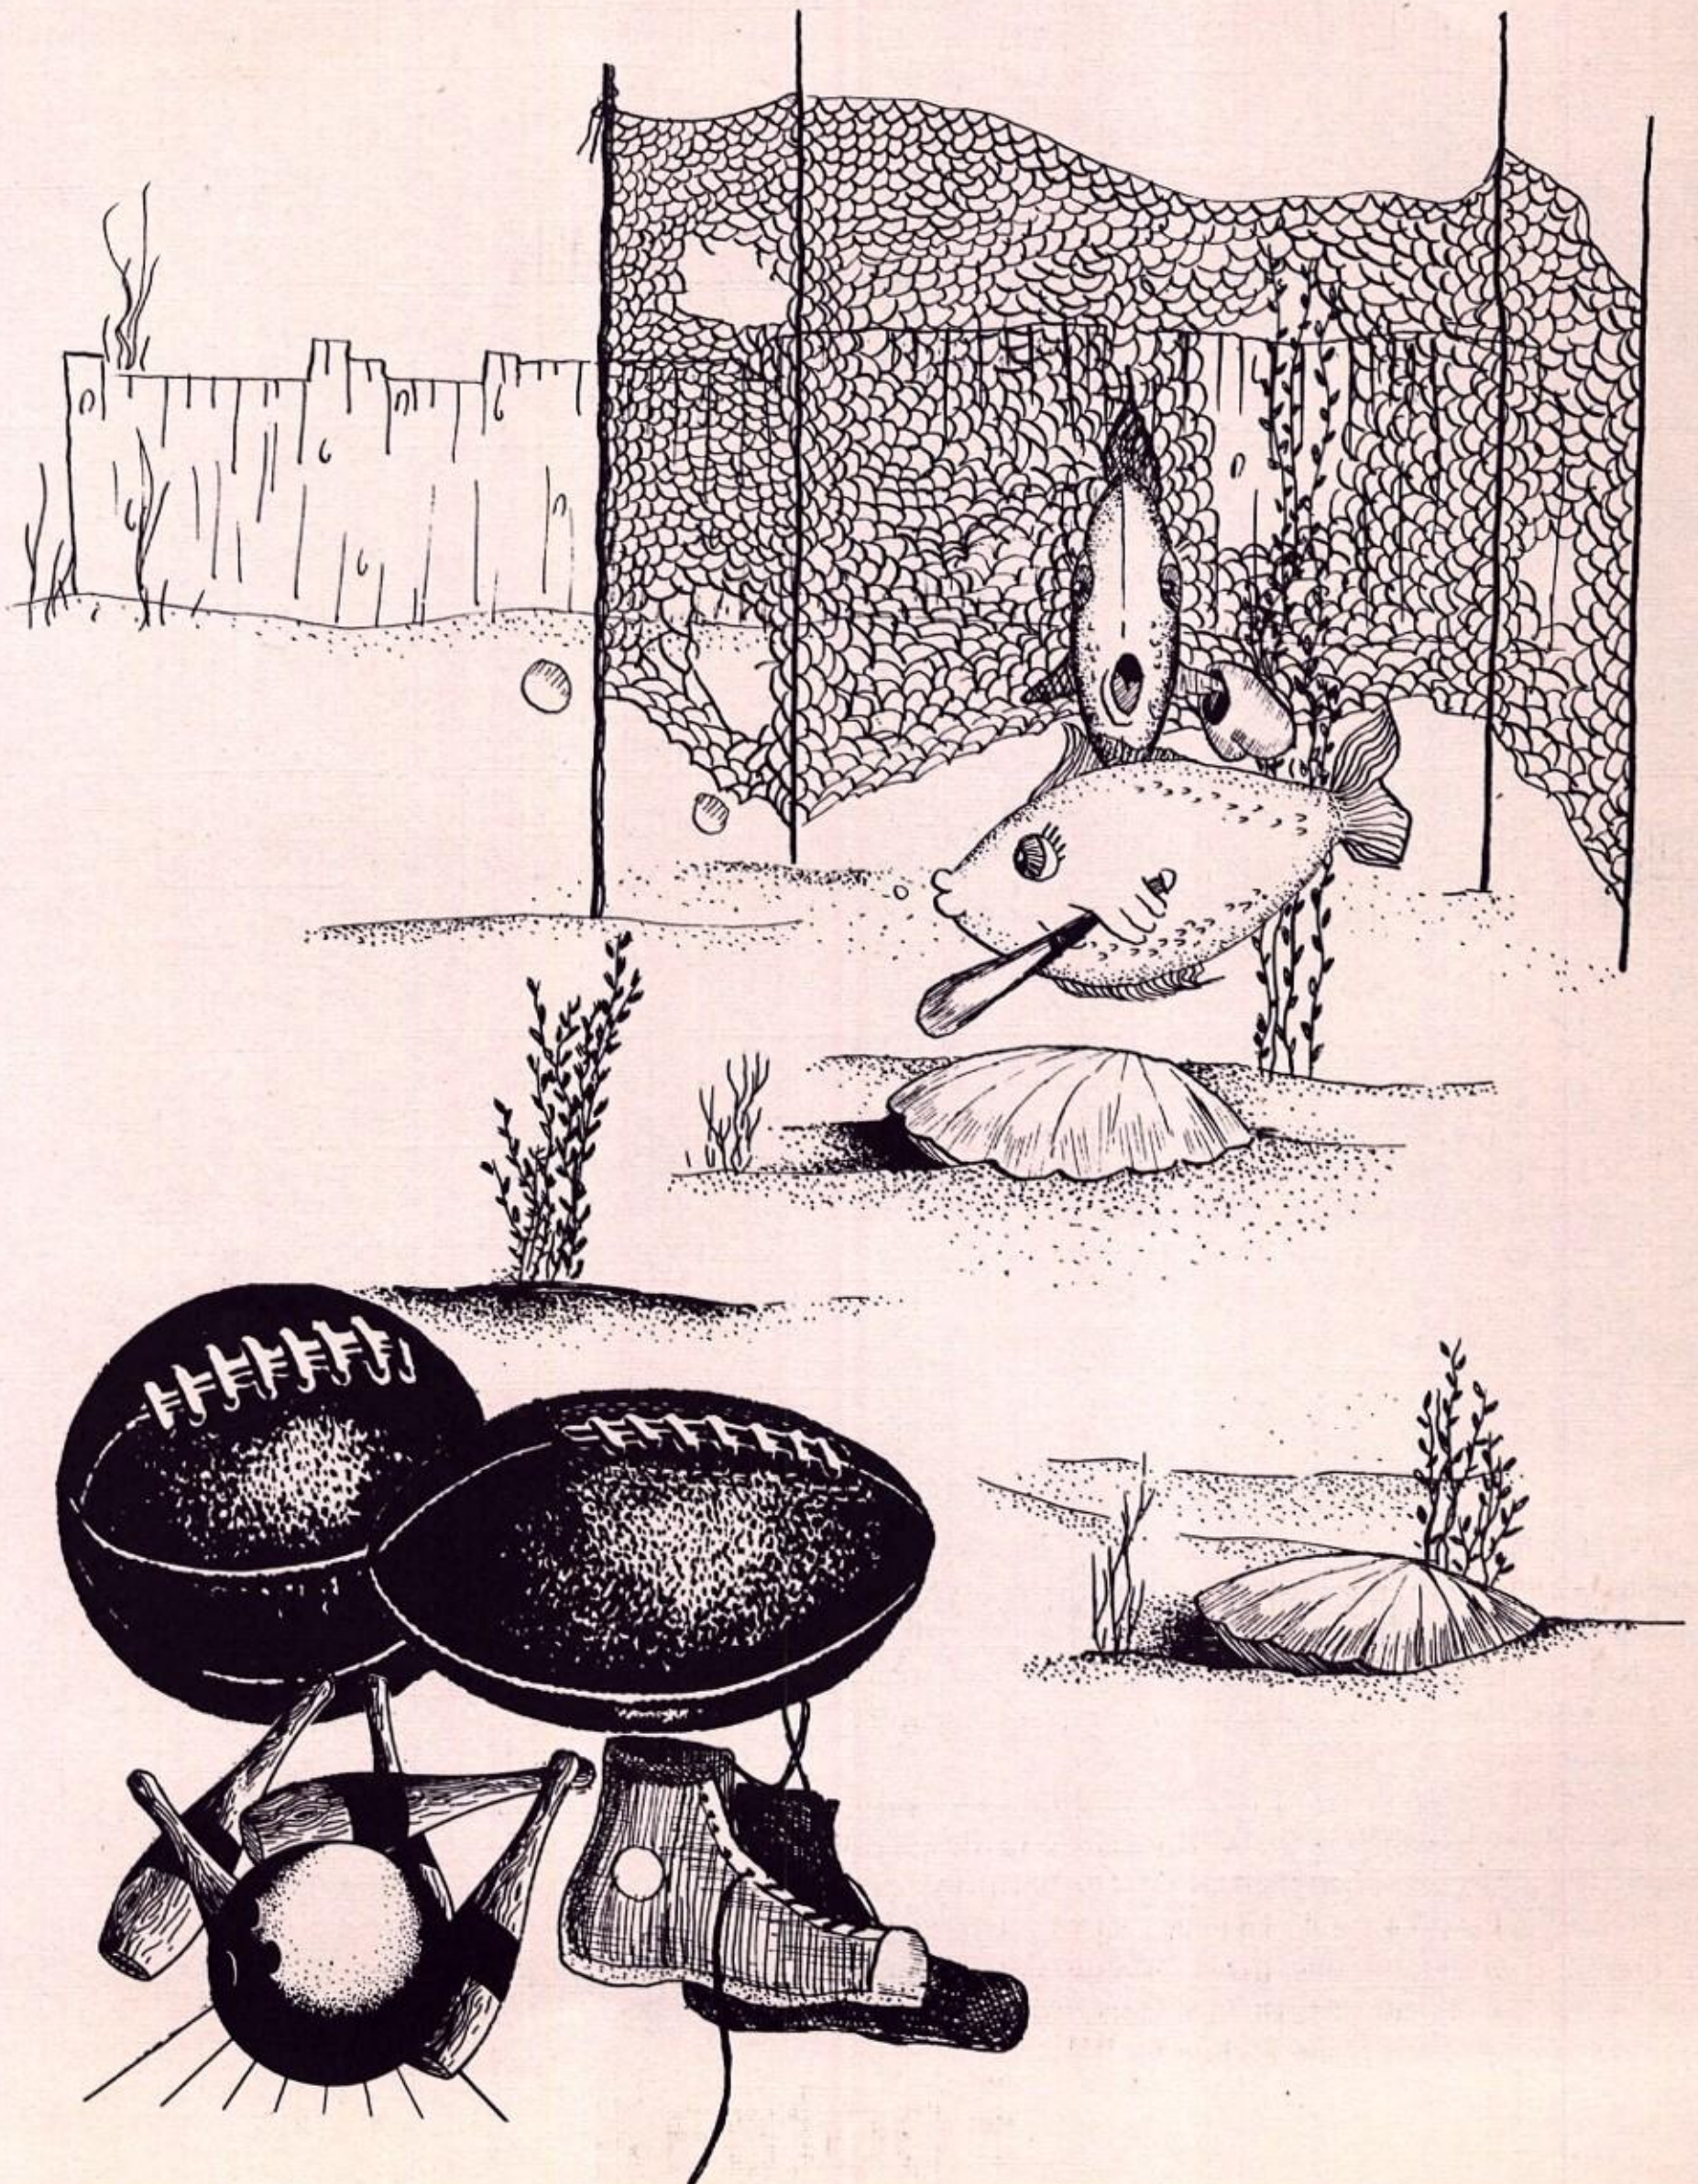

First row, left to right: E. Brunetto, S. Ralbovsky, M. Komornik, B. Lesser, B. Streeter, M. Burke. Second row, left to right: R. Girard, B. Putman, E. Wittman, R. Young, E. Brown, B. Hladik

The Student Council, backbone of our school, throughout the year ably kept calm the many currents of school life. Under the capable advisorship of Miss Streeter, it took over the direction of student government and numerous major activities. The group, made up of homeroom presidents chosen by the student body was led by Mary Komornik, president, with Barbara Lesser as vice president, and Stephen Ralbovsky as secretary - treasurer.

The council sponsored dances, whose proceeds went toward the much coveted National Honor Society pins and the annual Athletic Banquet. It also took charge of awarding letters to those star players who so valiantly upheld the athletic prowess of J.H.S.

Athletics

First row, left to right: Managers Hespelt and Keavney. Miller, Cipolla, R. Bannigan, Skvorak, Mezzano, Hoffman, Captain Smith, Wilkinson, J. Cerrone, Grant, Precopio, J. Johnson, Pollak, Managers Kane and Champagne. Second row, left to right: Coach Underwood, Hayes, Banning, Ivancic, Frazer, Longfritz, Becker, S. Ralbovsky, Heseck, Eagan, H. Johnson, Krause, Putman, Cerrone, Costa, Kane, P. Ralbovsky, Slovic, Coach Zoellner, Coach Siedlecki. Third row, left to right: W. Otruba, Simek, Barkley, Smullins, Nellis, McGuire, E. Bannigan, Vosburgh, Hauser, Buell, Walsh, Moran, Palumbo, Walczak, Lasher, Cirillo, Svec, Jones. Fourth row, left to right: E. Otruba, Havlicek, Girard, Samperi, Bump, Simonds, Brown, Young, Pappa, Swedberg, Wormouth, Cioffi, Zayicek, Peck, Aldrich, Stewart, Ebert, Shannon, Steding.

The football squad, coached by Mr. Siedlecki, had a fairly successful year. After losing most of last year's varsity squad, our team came through with four wins while suffering three defeats. In league play we won four out of five games and thus were in another tie with Saratoga and Bethlehem for the championship.

The squad credits most of its success to Mr. Siedlecki, who showed them that winning spirit. The team's spark was provided by "Pete" Precopio, triple threat quarterback; Sal Cipolla, fleetfooted left halfback; and our Captain, Milt Smith, who played an excellent line game. Credit should also be given to the rest of our linemen and backs, who did everything they could to help insure victory for JHS.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1951 - 1952 basketball team, handicapped by a lack of height, had plenty of spirit and hustle. The sharpshooting of Cipolla, Longfritz, and Precopio, combined with the rebounding of Wilkinson has pulled many an upset this season.

The team, however, couldn't do this alone. The credit for the leadership and training of the team goes to our coach, Mr. Zoellner.

The jayvees, under the direction of a new coach, Mr. Underwood, were fast and aggressive. Besides this they had that fighting spirit which is so essential to a good team. Leading scorers for the team were Ed Walczak, Steve Ralbovsky, and Captain Bill Pollak.

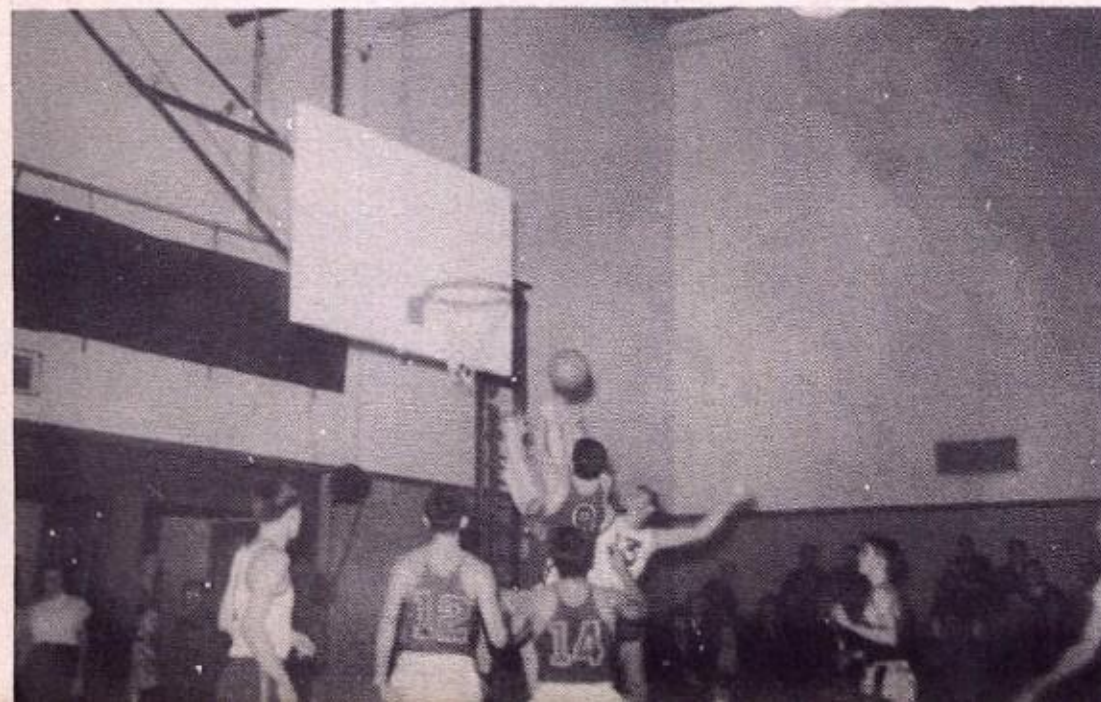

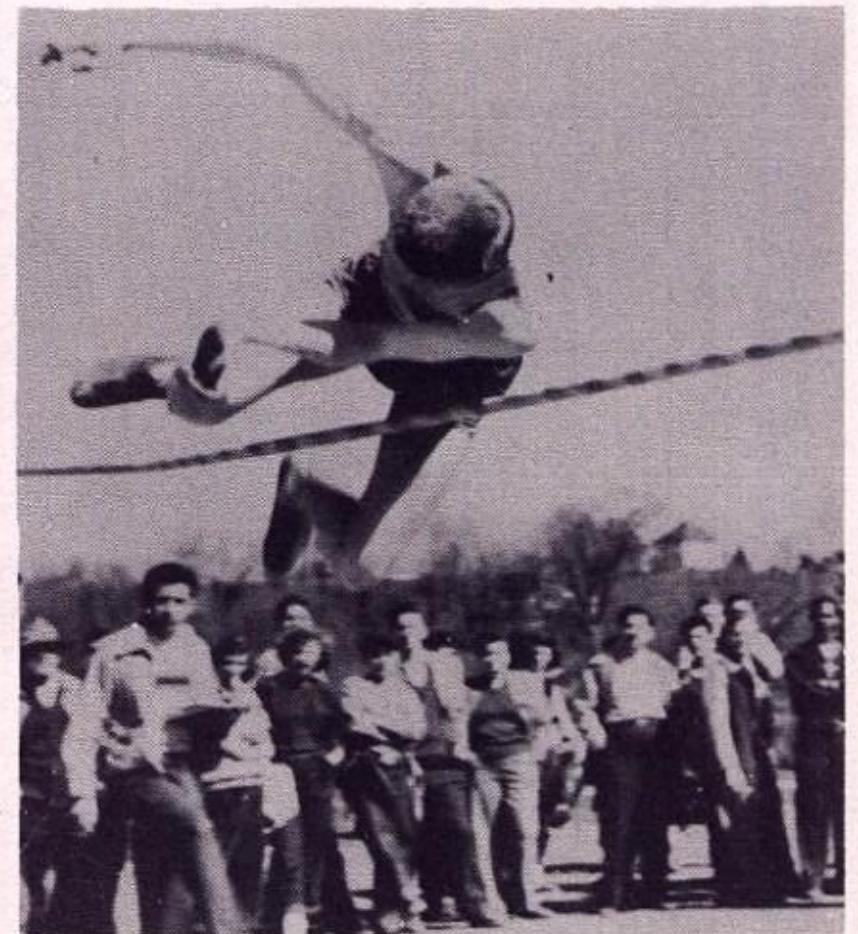

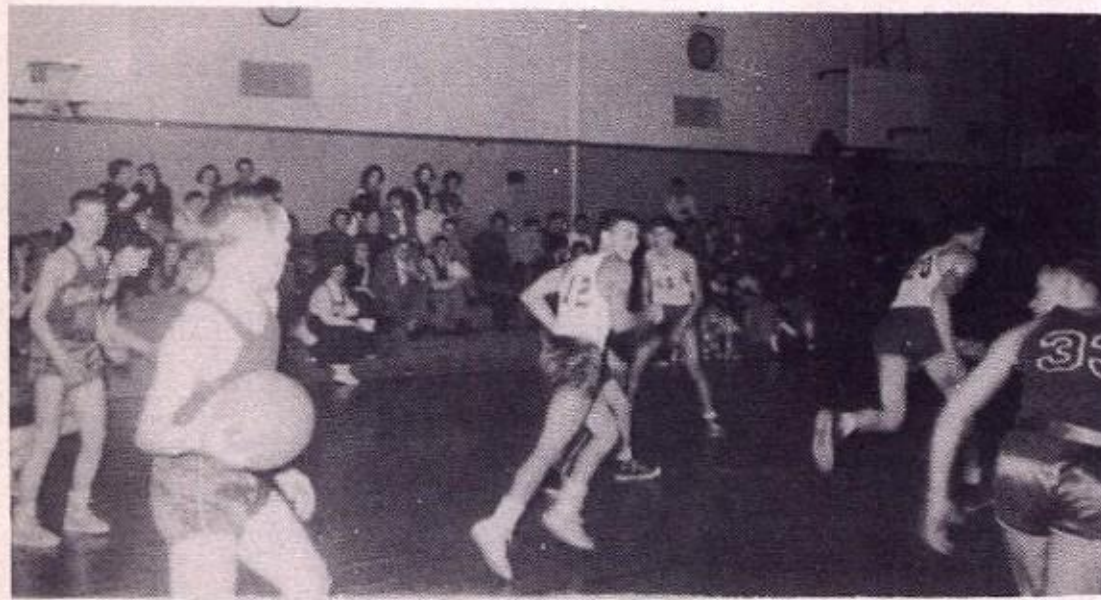

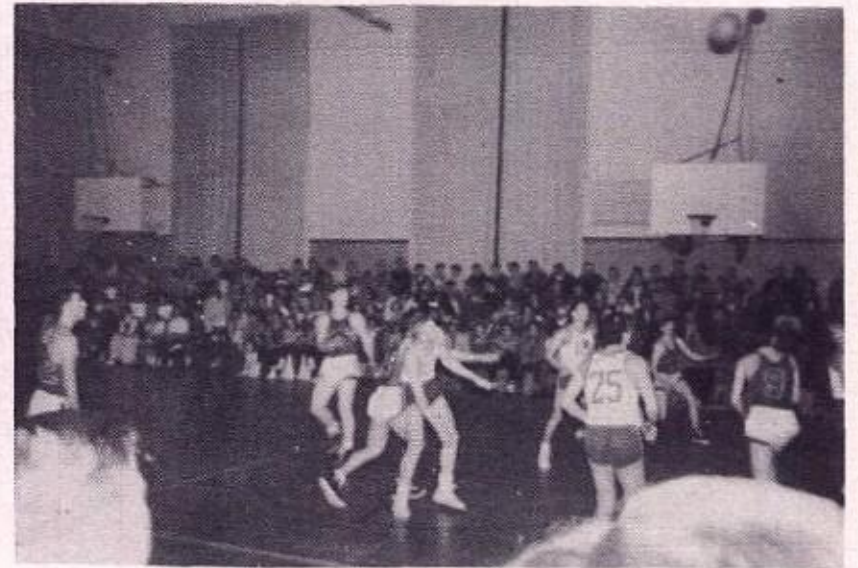

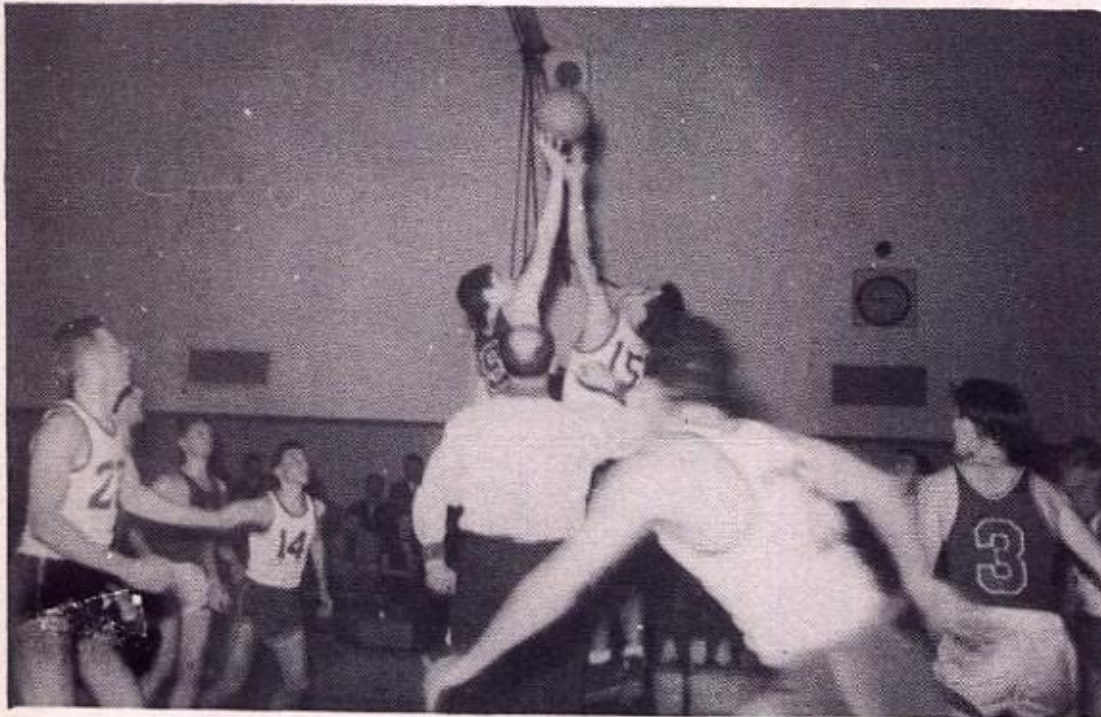

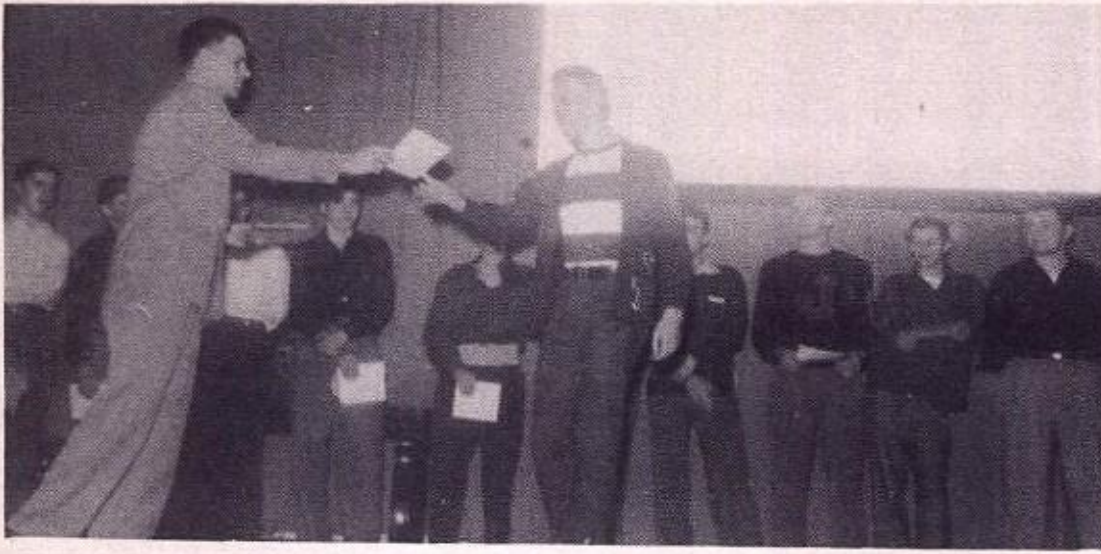

All the boys are excellent ball handlers and each has a few tricky shots. On this basis we will be looking forward to a good varsity team next year.
